

94TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

State of Illinois

2005 and 2006

HB4570

Introduced 1/11/2006, by Rep. Robert S. Molaro

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

40 ILCS 5/3-120

from Ch. 108 1/2, par. 3-120

30 ILCS 805/8.30 new

Amends the Downstate Police Article of the Illinois Pension Code. Provides that the surviving spouse of a police officer shall not be disqualified from receiving a survivor's pension if the surviving spouse was married to the deceased police officer for at least 15 years immediately preceding the date of death, regardless of whether the deceased police officer is still in service. Amends the State Mandates Act to require implementation without reimbursement. Effective immediately.

4 Section 5. The Illinois Pension Code is amended by changing
5 Section 3-120 as follows:

6 (40 ILCS 5/3-120) (from Ch. 108 1/2, par. 3-120)

7 Sec. 3-120. Marriage after retirement.

8 (a) If a police officer marries subsequent to retirement on 9 any pension under this Article (other than a pension
10 established under Section 3-109.3) and dies less than 15 years
11 after the date of marriage, the surviving spouse and the 12 children of such surviving spouse shall receive no pension on 13 the death of the officer, except as provided in subsection (b)
14 or (c).

15 (b) Notwithstanding Section 1-103.1 of this Code, this
16 Section shall not be deemed to disqualify from receiving a 17 survivor's pension the surviving spouse and children of any
18 police officer who (i) retired from service in 1973, married
19 the surviving spouse during 1974, and died in 1988, or (ii)
20 retired on disability in October of 1982, married the surviving
21 spouse during 1991, and died in 1992. In the case of a person
22 who becomes eligible for a benefit under this subsection (b),
23 the benefit shall begin to accrue on July 1, 1990 or July 1 of 24 the year following the police officer's death, whichever is 25 later.

26 (c) Beginning on the effective date of this amendatory Act
27 of the 94th General Assembly, this Section shall no longer
28 disqualify from receiving a pension the surviving spouse of any 29 police officer who married the deceased police officer after 30 his or her retirement on pension, but was married to the 31 deceased police officer for at least 15 years immediately
32 preceding the date of death, regardless of whether the deceased

1 police officer is in service or is receiving a retirement
2 pension on or after the effective date of this amendatory Act
3 of the 94th General Assembly; except that this subsection (c)
4 does not apply to the surviving spouse of a police officer who 5 received a refund of contributions under Section 3-124. If the 6 surviving spouse of a police officer who died before the 7 effective date of this amendatory Act becomes eligible for a
8 pension because of this amendatory Act, that pension shall
9 begin to accrue on the date of the surviving spouse's
10 application for the pension, but in no event sooner than the 11 effective date of this amendatory Act.

13 Section 90. The State Mandates Act is amended by adding
14 Section 8.30 as follows:

15 (30 ILCS 805/8.30 new)

16 Sec. 8.30. Exempt mandate. Notwithstanding Sections 6 and 8
17 of this Act, no reimbursement by the State is required for the 18 implementation of any mandate created by this amendatory Act of 19 the 94th General Assembly.

20 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon 21 becoming law.
