1 (720 ILCS 5/16G-25) 2 Sec. 16G-25. Offenders interest in the property, consent. 3 (a) It is no defense to a charge of aggravated identity 4 theft or identity theft that the offender has an interest in 5 the credit, money, goods, services, or other property. (b) It is no defense to a charge of aggravated identity 6 7 theft or identity theft that the offender received the consent of any person to access any personal identification information 8 or personal identification document, other than the person 9 described by the personal identification information or 10 11 personal identification document used by the offender. (Source: P.A. 93-401, eff. 7-31-03.) 12 13 (720 ILCS 5/16G-30) 14 Sec. 16G-30. Mandating law enforcement agencies to accept 15 and provide reports; judicial factual determination. (a) A person who has learned or reasonably suspects that 16 17 his or her personal identifying information has been unlawfully

18 used by another may initiate a law enforcement investigation by 19 contacting the local law enforcement agency that has jurisdiction over his or her actual residence, which shall take 20 a police report of the matter, provide the complainant with a 21 copy of that report, and begin an investigation of the facts 22 23 or, if the suspected crime was committed in a different jurisdiction, refer the matter to the law enforcement agency 24 25 where the suspected crime was committed for an investigation of 26 the facts.

27 (b) A person who reasonably believes that he or she is the 28 victim of financial identity theft may petition a court, or the 29 court, on its own motion or upon application of the prosecuting 30 attorney, may move for an expedited judicial determination of his or her factual innocence, where the perpetrator of the 31 financial identity theft was arrested for, cited for, or 32 convicted of a crime under the victim's identity, or where a 33 34 criminal complaint has been filed against the perpetrator in

1 the victim's name, or where the victim's identity has been 2 mistakenly associated with a criminal conviction. Any judicial determination of factual innocence made pursuant to this 3 subsection (b) may be heard and determined upon declarations, 4 5 affidavits, police reports, or other material, relevant, and 6 reliable information submitted by the parties or ordered to be part of the record by the court. If the court determines that 7 8 the petition or motion is meritorious and that there is no 9 reasonable cause to believe that the victim committed the offense for which the perpetrator of the identity theft was 10 11 arrested, cited, convicted, or subject to a criminal complaint 12 in the victim's name, or that the victim's identity has been mistakenly associated with a record of criminal conviction, the 13 court shall find the victim factually innocent of that offense. 14 15 If the victim is found factually innocent, the court shall 16 issue an order certifying this determination.

17 (c) After a court has issued a determination of factual 18 innocence under this Section, the court may order the name and 19 associated personal identifying information contained in the 20 court records, files, and indexes accessible by the public 21 sealed, deleted, or labeled to show that the data is 22 impersonated and does not reflect the defendant's identity.

(d) A court that has issued a determination of factual innocence under this Section may at any time vacate that determination if the petition, or any information submitted in support of the petition, is found to contain any material misrepresentation or fraud.

28 (e) Except for criminal and civil actions provided for by this Article, or for disciplinary or licensure-related 29 proceedings involving the violation of this Article, no 30 31 information acquired by, or as a result of, any violation of Section 16G-15 or 16G-20 shall be discoverable or admissible in 32 any court or other proceeding, or otherwise subject to 33 disclosure without the express permission of any person or 34 35 persons identified in that information.
