

94TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

State of Illinois

2005 and 2006

SB2676

Introduced 1/20/2006, by Sen. Ira I. Silverstein

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

755 ILCS 45/3-4

from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 803-4

Amends the Illinois Power of Attorney Act. Provides that the Section that explains the powers granted in the statutory short form power of attorney for property is expanded so that the financial transaction subsection states that an agent may open, close, or control a Totten Trust, a Payable on Death Account, or a similar arrangement with a financial institution, but the agent's authority does not include any powers over accounts titled in the name of a trust pursuant to the Trust and Trustees Act, unless specifically authorized by a person's power of attorney for property. Effective immediately.

1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Illinois Power of Attorney Act is amended by 5 changing Section 3-4 as follows:

6 (755 ILCS 45/3-4) (from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 803-4)

7 Sec. 3-4. Explanation of powers granted in the statutory 8 short form power of attorney for property. This Section defines 9 each category of powers listed in the statutory short form 10 power of attorney for property and the effect of granting 11 powers to an agent. When the title of any of the following 12 categories is retained (not struck out) in a statutory property 13 power form, the effect will be to grant the agent all of the 14 principal's rights, powers and discretions with respect to the 15 types of property and transactions covered by the retained 16 category, subject to any limitations on the granted powers that 17 appear on the face of the form. The agent will have authority 18 to exercise each granted power for and in the name of the 19 principal with respect to all of the principal's interests in 20 every type of property or transaction covered by the granted 21 power at the time of exercise, whether the principal's 22 interests are direct or indirect, whole or fractional, legal, 23 equitable or contractual, as a joint tenant or tenant in common 24 or held in any other form; but the agent will not have power 25 under any of the statutory categories (a) through (o) to make 26 gifts of the principal's property, to exercise powers to 27 appoint to others or to change any beneficiary whom the 28 principal has designated to take the principal's interests at 29 death under any will, trust, joint tenancy, beneficiary form or 30 contractual arrangement. The agent will be under no duty to 31 exercise granted powers or to assume control of or 32 responsibility for the principal's property or affairs; but

1 when granted powers are exercised, the agent will be required 2 to use due care to act for the benefit of the principal in 3 accordance with the terms of the statutory property power and 4 will be liable for negligent exercise. The agent may act in 5 person or through others reasonably employed by the agent for 6 that purpose and will have authority to sign and deliver all 7 instruments, negotiate and enter into all agreements and do all 8 other acts reasonably necessary to implement the exercise of 9 the powers granted to the agent.

10 (a) Real estate transactions. The agent is authorized to: 11 buy, sell, exchange, rent and lease real estate (which term 12 includes, without limitation, real estate subject to a land 13 trust and all beneficial interests in and powers of direction 14 under any land trust); collect all rent, sale proceeds and 15 earnings from real estate; convey, assign and accept title to 16 real estate; grant easements, create conditions and release 17 rights of homestead with respect to real estate; create land 18 trusts and exercise all powers under land trusts; hold, 19 possess, maintain, repair, improve, subdivide, manage, operate
20 and insure real estate; pay, contest, protest and compromise 21 real estate taxes and assessments; and, in general, exercise 22 all powers with respect to real estate which the principal 23 could if present and under no disability.

24 (b) Financial institution transactions. The agent is 25 authorized to: open, close, continue and control all accounts 26 and deposits in any type of financial institution (which term 27 includes, without limitation, banks, trust companies, savings 28 and building and loan associations, credit unions and brokerage 29 firms), including any Totten Trust, Payable on Death Account, 30 or comparable trust account arrangement where the terms of such 31 trust are contained entirely on the financial institution's 32 signature card, and excluding accounts titled in the name of 33 any trust subject to the provisions of the Trusts and Trustees 34 Act, for which specific reference to the trust and a specific 35 grant of authority to the agent to withdraw income or principal 36 from such trust is required in the statutory property power of 1 attorney form pursuant to Section 2-9 of the Illinois Power of 2 Attorney Act and subsection (n) of this Section; deposit in and 3 withdraw from and write checks on any financial institution 4 account or deposit; and, in general, exercise all powers with 5 respect to financial institution transactions which the 6 principal could if present and under no disability.

7 (c) Stock and bond transactions. The agent is authorized 8 to: buy and sell all types of securities (which term includes, 9 without limitation, stocks, bonds, mutual funds and all other 10 types of investment securities and financial instruments); 11 collect, hold and safekeep all dividends, interest, earnings, 12 proceeds of sale, distributions, shares, certificates and 13 other evidences of ownership paid or distributed with respect 14 to securities; exercise all voting rights with respect to 15 securities in person or by proxy, enter into voting trusts and 16 consent to limitations on the right to vote; and, in general, 17 exercise all powers with respect to securities which the 18 principal could if present and under no disability.

19 (d) Tangible personal property transactions. The agent is 20 authorized to: buy and sell, lease, exchange, collect, possess 21 and take title to all tangible personal property; move, store,

23 insure and safekeep tangible personal property; and, in 24 general, exercise all powers with respect to tangible personal 25 property which the principal could if present and under no
26 disability.

27 (e) Safe deposit box transactions. The agent is authorized 28 to: open, continue and have access to all safe deposit boxes; 29 sign, renew, release or terminate any safe deposit contract;
30 drill or surrender any safe deposit box; and, in general, 31 exercise all powers with respect to safe deposit matters which 32 the principal could if present and under no disability.

33 (f) Insurance and annuity transactions. The agent is 34 authorized to: procure, acquire, continue, renew, terminate or 35 otherwise deal with any type of insurance or annuity contract 36 (which terms include, without limitation, life, accident,

1 health, disability, automobile casualty, property or liability 2 insurance); pay premiums or assessments on or surrender and 3 collect all distributions, proceeds or benefits payable under 4 any insurance or annuity contract; and, in general, exercise 5 all powers with respect to insurance and annuity contracts 6 which the principal could if present and under no disability.

7 (g) Retirement plan transactions. The agent is authorized 8 to: contribute to, withdraw from and deposit funds in any type 9 of retirement plan (which term includes, without limitation, 10 any tax qualified or nonqualified pension, profit sharing, 11 stock bonus, employee savings and other retirement plan, 12 individual retirement account, deferred compensation plan and 13 any other type of employee benefit plan); select and change 14 payment options for the principal under any retirement plan; 15 make rollover contributions from any retirement plan to other 16 retirement plans or individual retirement accounts; exercise 17 all investment powers available under any type of self-directed 18 retirement plan; and, in general, exercise all powers with 19 respect to retirement plans and retirement plan account 20 balances which the principal could if present and under no
21 disability.

22 (h) Social Security, unemployment and military service
23 benefits. The agent is authorized to: prepare, sign and file 24 any claim or application for Social Security, unemployment or 25 military service benefits; sue for, settle or abandon any 26 claims to any benefit or assistance under any federal, state, 27 local or foreign statute or regulation; control, deposit to any 28 account, collect, receipt for, and take title to and hold all 29 benefits under any Social Security, unemployment, military 30 service or other state, federal, local or foreign statute or 31 regulation; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect 32 to Social Security, unemployment, military service and 33 governmental benefits which the principal could if present and 34 under no disability.

35 (i) Tax matters. The agent is authorized to: sign, verify 36 and file all the principal's federal, state and local income,

1 gift, estate, property and other tax returns, including joint 2 returns and declarations of estimated tax; pay all taxes;
3 claim, sue for and receive all tax refunds; examine and copy 4 all the principal's tax returns and records; represent the 5 principal before any federal, state or local revenue agency or 6 taxing body and sign and deliver all tax powers of attorney on 7 behalf of the principal that may be necessary for such 8 purposes; waive rights and sign all documents on behalf of the 9 principal as required to settle, pay and determine all tax 10 liabilities; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect 11 to tax matters which the principal could if present and under 12 no disability.

13 (j) Claims and litigation. The agent is authorized to:
14 institute, prosecute, defend, abandon, compromise, arbitrate, 15 settle and dispose of any claim in favor of or against the 16 principal or any property interests of the principal; collect 17 and receipt for any claim or settlement proceeds and waive or 18 release all rights of the principal; employ attorneys and 19 others and enter into contingency agreements and other 20 contracts as necessary in connection with litigation; and, in 21 general, exercise all powers with respect to claims and 22 litigation which the principal could if present and under no
23 disability.

24 (k) Commodity and option transactions. The agent is 25 authorized to: buy, sell, exchange, assign, convey, settle and 26 exercise commodities futures contracts and call and put options 27 on stocks and stock indices traded on a regulated options
