(j-1) (Blank).

18 (k) Habitual drunkenness or addiction to drugs, other 19 than those prescribed by a physician, for at least one year 20 immediately prior to the commencement of the unfitness 21 proceeding.

There is a rebuttable presumption that a parent is 22 23 unfit under this subsection with respect to any child to which that parent gives birth where there is a confirmed 24 25 test result that at birth the child's blood, urine, or meconium contained any amount of a controlled substance as 26 27 defined in subsection (f) of Section 102 of the Illinois Controlled 28 Substances Act or metabolites of such substances, the presence of which in the newborn infant was 29 30 not the result of medical treatment administered to the 31 mother or the newborn infant; and the biological mother of 32 this child is the biological mother of at least one other adjudicated a neglected minor under 33 child who was subsection (c) of Section 2-3 of the Juvenile Court Act of 34 1987. 35

(1) Failure to demonstrate a reasonable degree of

1 2 interest, concern or responsibility as to the welfare of a new born child during the first 30 days after its birth.

3 (m) Failure by a parent (i) to make reasonable efforts to correct the conditions that were the basis for the 4 5 removal of the child from the parent, or (ii) to make reasonable progress toward the return of the child to the 6 parent within 9 months after an adjudication of neglected 7 or abused minor under Section 2-3 of the Juvenile Court Act 8 9 of 1987 or dependent minor under Section 2-4 of that Act, 10 or (iii) to make reasonable progress toward the return of 11 the child to the parent during any 9-month period after the of the initial 9-month period following the 12 end adjudication of neglected or abused minor under Section 2-3 13 of the Juvenile Court Act of 1987 or dependent minor under 14 Section 2-4 of that Act. If a service plan has been 15 16 established as required under Section 8.2 of the Abused and 17 Neglected Child Reporting Act to correct the conditions that were the basis for the removal of the child from the 18 parent and if those services were available, then, for 19 20 purposes of this Act, "failure to make reasonable progress toward the return of the child to the parent" includes (I) 21 the parent's failure to substantially fulfill his or her 22 23 obligations under the service plan and correct the conditions that brought the child into care within 9 months 24 after the adjudication under Section 2-3 or 2-4 of the 25 Juvenile Court Act of 1987 and (II) the parent's failure to 26 27 substantially fulfill his or her obligations under the service plan and correct the conditions that brought the 28 child into care during any 9-month period after the end of 29 30 the initial 9-month period following the adjudication under Section 2-3 or 2-4 of the Juvenile Court Act of 1987. 31 32 Notwithstanding any other provision, when a petition or motion seeks to terminate parental rights on the basis of 33 item (iii) of this subsection (m), the petitioner shall 34 file with the court and serve on the parties a pleading 35 that specifies the 9-month period or periods relied on. The 36 pleading shall be filed and served on the parties no later than 3 weeks before the date set by the court for closure of discovery, and the allegations in the pleading shall be treated as incorporated into the petition or motion. Failure of a respondent to file a written denial of the allegations in the pleading shall not be treated as an admission that the allegations are true.

(m-1) Pursuant to the Juvenile Court Act of 1987, a 8 9 child has been in foster care for 15 months out of any 22 10 month period which begins on or after the effective date of 11 this amendatory Act of 1998 unless the child's parent can prove by a preponderance of the evidence that it is more 12 likely than not that it will be in the best interests of 13 the child to be returned to the parent within 6 months of 14 the date on which a petition for termination of parental 15 16 rights is filed under the Juvenile Court Act of 1987. The 17 15 month time limit is tolled during any period for which there is a court finding that the appointed custodian or 18 guardian failed to make reasonable efforts to reunify the 19 20 child with his or her family, provided that (i) the finding of no reasonable efforts is made within 60 days of the 21 period when reasonable efforts were not made or (ii) the 22 23 parent filed a motion requesting a finding of no reasonable 24 efforts within 60 days of the period when reasonable efforts were not made. For purposes of this subdivision 25 (m-1), the date of entering foster care is the earlier of: 26 27 (i) the date of a judicial finding at an adjudicatory 28 that the child is an abused, neglected, hearing or dependent minor; or (ii) 60 days after the date on which 29 30 the child is removed from his or her parent, guardian, or 31 legal custodian.

(n) Evidence of intent to forgo his or her parental rights, whether or not the child is a ward of the court,
(1) as manifested by his or her failure for a period of 12 months: (i) to visit the child, (ii) to communicate with the child or agency, although able to do so and not

1 prevented from doing so by an agency or by court order, or 2 (iii) to maintain contact with or plan for the future of 3 the child, although physically able to do so, or (2) as manifested by the father's failure, where he and the mother 4 5 of the child were unmarried to each other at the time of the child's birth, (i) to commence legal proceedings to 6 establish his paternity under the Illinois Parentage Act of 7 1984 or the law of the jurisdiction of the child's birth 8 9 within 30 days of being informed, pursuant to Section 12a 10 of this Act, that he is the father or the likely father of 11 the child or, after being so informed where the child is 12 not yet born, within 30 days of the child's birth, or (ii) to make a good faith effort to pay a reasonable amount of 13 the expenses related to the birth of the child and to 14 provide a reasonable amount for the financial support of 15 16 the child, the court to consider in its determination all 17 relevant circumstances, including the financial condition of both parents; provided that the ground for termination 18 provided in this subparagraph (n)(2)(ii) shall only be 19 20 available where the petition is brought by the mother or the husband of the mother. 21

Contact or communication by a parent with his or her 22 23 child that does not demonstrate affection and concern does 24 constitute reasonable contact and planning under not 25 subdivision (n). In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the ability to visit, communicate, maintain 26 27 contact, pay expenses and plan for the future shall be 28 presumed. The subjective intent of the parent, whether expressed or otherwise, unsupported by evidence of the 29 30 foregoing parental acts manifesting that intent, shall not 31 preclude a determination that the parent has intended to 32 forqo his or her parental rights. In making this determination, the court may consider but shall not require 33 a showing of diligent efforts by an authorized agency to 34 encourage the parent to perform the acts specified in 35 subdivision (n). 36

1 It shall be an affirmative defense to any allegation 2 under paragraph (2) of this subsection that the father's 3 failure was due to circumstances beyond his control or to 4 impediments created by the mother or any other person 5 having legal custody. (o) Repeated or continuous failure by the parents, although physically and financially able, to provide the child with adequate food, clothing, or shelter.

However, this 19 20 subdivision (p) shall not be construed so as to permit a licensed clinical social worker to conduct any medical 21 diagnosis to determine mental illness 22 or mental 23 impairment.

27 (r) The child is in the temporary custody or 28 guardianship of the Department of Children and Family Services, the parent is incarcerated as a result of 29 30 criminal conviction at the time the petition or motion for 31 termination of parental rights is filed, prior to 32 incarceration the parent had little or no contact with the child or provided little or no support for the child, and 33 the parent's incarceration will prevent the parent from 34 discharging his or her parental responsibilities for the 35 child for a period in excess of 2 years after the filing of 36

the petition or motion for termination of parental rights.

2 The child is in the temporary custody (s) or guardianship of the Department of Children and Family 3 Services, the parent is incarcerated at the time the 4 5 petition or motion for termination of parental rights is 6 filed, the parent has been repeatedly incarcerated as a result of criminal convictions, and the parent's repeated 7 incarceration has prevented the parent from discharging 8 9 his or her parental responsibilities for the child.

10 (t) A finding that at birth the child's blood, urine, 11 or meconium contained any amount of a controlled substance 12 as defined in subsection (f) of Section 102 of the Illinois Controlled Substances Act, or a metabolite of a controlled 13 substance, with the exception of controlled substances or 14 metabolites of such substances, the presence of which in 15 the newborn infant was the result of medical treatment 16 17 administered to the mother or the newborn infant, and that the biological mother of this child is the biological 18 mother of at least one other child who was adjudicated a 19 20 neglected minor under subsection (c) of Section 2-3 of the Juvenile Court Act of 1987, after which the biological 21 mother had the opportunity to enroll in and participate in 22 a clinically appropriate substance abuse counseling, 23 treatment, and rehabilitation program. 24
