

1 AN ACT concerning orders of protection.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 is 5 amended by changing Section 112A-14 as follows:

6 (725 ILCS 5/112A-14) (from Ch. 38, par. 112A-14)

7 Sec. 112A-14. Order of protection; remedies.

8 (a) Issuance of order. If the court finds that petitioner
9 has been abused by a family or household member, as defined in 10 this Article, an order of protection prohibiting such abuse 11 shall issue; provided that petitioner must also satisfy the 12 requirements of one of the following Sections, as appropriate:
13 Section 112A-17 on emergency orders, Section 112A-18 on interim 14 orders, or Section 112A-19 on plenary orders. Petitioner shall 15 not be denied an order of protection because petitioner or 16 respondent is a minor. The court, when determining whether or 17 not to issue an order of protection, shall not require physical 18 manifestations of abuse on the person of the victim.
19 Modification and extension of prior orders of protection shall 20 be in accordance with this Article.

21 (b) Remedies and standards. The remedies to be included in 22 an order of protection shall be determined in accordance with 23 this Section and one of the following Sections, as appropriate:

1 Section 112A-17 on emergency orders, Section 112A-18 on interim
2 orders, and Section 112A-19 on plenary orders. The remedies
3 listed in this subsection shall be in addition to other civil 4 or criminal remedies available to petitioner.

5 (1) Prohibition of abuse. Prohibit respondent's 6 harassment, interference with personal liberty,
7 intimidation of a dependent, physical abuse or willful 8 deprivation, as defined in this Article, if such abuse has 9 occurred or otherwise appears likely to occur if not 10 prohibited.

11 (2) Grant of exclusive possession of residence.
12 Prohibit respondent from entering or remaining in any 13 residence or household of the petitioner, including one
14 owned or leased by respondent, if petitioner has a right to 15 occupancy thereof. The grant of exclusive possession of the 16 residence shall not affect title to real property, nor 17 shall the court be limited by the standard set forth in 18 Section 701 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of 19 Marriage Act.

20 (A) Right to occupancy. A party has a right to 21 occupancy of a residence or household if it is solely 22 or jointly owned or leased by that party, that party's 23 spouse, a person with a legal duty to support that 24 party or a minor child in that party's care, or by any 25 person or entity other than the opposing party that 26 authorizes that party's occupancy (e.g., a domestic

1 violence shelter). Standards set forth in subparagraph
2 (B) shall not preclude equitable relief.

3 (B) Presumption of hardships. If petitioner and
4 respondent each has the right to occupancy of a
5 residence or household, the court shall balance (i) the 6 hardships to respondent and any minor child or 7 dependent adult in respondent's care resulting from 8 entry of this remedy with (ii) the hardships to 9 petitioner and any minor child or dependent adult in 10 petitioner's care resulting from continued exposure to 11 the risk of abuse (should petitioner remain at the 12 residence or household) or from loss of possession of 13 the residence or household (should petitioner leave to 14 avoid the risk of abuse). When determining the balance
15 of hardships, the court shall also take into account
16 the accessibility of the residence or household.
17 Hardships need not be balanced if respondent does not 18 have a right to occupancy.

19 The balance of hardships is presumed to favor
20 possession by petitioner unless the presumption is 21 rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence, showing
22 that the hardships to respondent substantially
23 outweigh the hardships to petitioner and any minor
24 child or dependent adult in petitioner's care. The 25 court, on the request of petitioner or on its own
26 motion, may order respondent to provide suitable,

1           accessible, alternate housing for petitioner instead
2           of excluding respondent from a mutual residence or 3           household.

4           (3) Stay away order and additional prohibitions. Order
5           respondent to stay away from petitioner or any other person 6           protected by the order of protection, or prohibit 7           respondent from entering or remaining present at 8           petitioner's school, place of employment, or other
9           specified places at times when petitioner is present, or 10          both, if reasonable, given the balance of hardships.
11          Hardships need not be balanced for the court to enter a
12          stay away order or prohibit entry if respondent has no
13          right to enter the premises.

14          If an order of protection grants petitioner exclusive
15          possession of the residence, or prohibits respondent from 16          entering the residence, or orders respondent to stay away
17          from petitioner or other protected persons, then the court
18          may allow respondent access to the residence to remove 19          items of clothing and personal adornment used exclusively
20          by respondent, medications, and other items as the court
21          directs. The right to access shall be exercised on only one 22          occasion as the court directs and in the presence of an 23          agreed-upon adult third party or law enforcement officer.

24          (4) Counseling. Require or recommend the respondent to 25          undergo counseling for a specified duration with a social 26          worker, psychologist, clinical psychologist, psychiatrist,

1 family service agency, alcohol or substance abuse program,
2 mental health center guidance counselor, agency providing
3 services to elders, program designed for domestic violence
4 abusers or any other guidance service the court deems
5 appropriate.

6 (5) Physical care and possession of the minor child. In 7 order to protect the minor child from abuse, neglect, or 8 unwarranted separation from the person who has been the 9 minor child's primary caretaker, or to otherwise protect
10 the well-being of the minor child, the court may do either
11 or both of the following: (i) grant petitioner physical
12 care or possession of the minor child, or both, or (ii)
13 order respondent to return a minor child to, or not remove 14 a minor child from, the physical care of a parent or person
15 in loco parentis.

16 If a court finds, after a hearing, that respondent has 17 committed abuse (as defined in Section 112A-3) of a minor
18 child, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that 19 awarding physical care to respondent would not be in the 20 minor child's best interest.

21 (6) Temporary legal custody. Award temporary legal 22 custody to petitioner in accordance with this Section, the 23 Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, the 24 Illinois Parentage Act of 1984, and this State's Uniform
25 Child-Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

26 If a court finds, after a hearing, that respondent has

1 committed abuse (as defined in Section 112A-3) of a minor
2 child, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that
3 awarding temporary legal custody to respondent would not be
4 in the child's best interest.

5 (7) Visitation. Determine the visitation rights, if 6 any, of respondent in any case in which the court awards
7 physical care or temporary legal custody of a minor child
8 to petitioner. The court shall restrict or deny
9 respondent's visitation with a minor child if the court
10 finds that respondent has done or is likely to do any of 11 the following: (i) abuse or endanger the minor child during 12 visitation; (ii) use the visitation as an opportunity to 13 abuse or harass petitioner or petitioner's family or 14 household members; (iii) improperly conceal or detain the 15 minor child; or (iv) otherwise act in a manner that is not 16 in the best interests of the minor child. The court shall 17 not be limited by the standards set forth in Section 607.1
18 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act.
19 If the court grants visitation, the order shall specify
20 dates and times for the visitation to take place or other
21 specific parameters or conditions that are appropriate. No
22 order for visitation shall refer merely to the term
23 "reasonable visitation".

24 Petitioner may deny respondent access to the minor
25 child if, when respondent arrives for visitation,
26 respondent is under the influence of drugs or alcohol and

1 constitutes a threat to the safety and well-being of 2 petitioner or petitioner's minor children or is behaving in 3 a violent or abusive manner.

4 If necessary to protect any member of petitioner's
5 family or household from future abuse, respondent shall be
6 prohibited from coming to petitioner's residence to meet
7 the minor child for visitation, and the parties shall 8 submit to the court their recommendations for reasonable
9 alternative arrangements for visitation. A person may be 10 approved to supervise visitation only after filing an 11 affidavit accepting that responsibility and acknowledging
12 accountability to the court.

13 (8) Removal or concealment of minor child. Prohibit 14 respondent from removing a minor child from the State or 15 concealing the child within the State.

16 (9) Order to appear. Order the respondent to appear in 17 court, alone or with a minor child, to prevent abuse,
18 neglect, removal or concealment of the child, to return the 19 child to the custody or care of the petitioner or to permit
20 any court-ordered interview or examination of the child or 21 the respondent.

22 (10) Possession of personal property. Grant petitioner
23 exclusive possession of personal property and, if 24 respondent has possession or control, direct respondent to 25 promptly make it available to petitioner, if:

26 (i) petitioner, but not respondent, owns the

1 property; or

2 (ii) the parties own the property jointly; sharing
3 it would risk abuse of petitioner by respondent or is
4 impracticable; and the balance of hardships favors
5 temporary possession by petitioner.

6 If petitioner's sole claim to ownership of the property
7 is that it is marital property, the court may award
8 petitioner temporary possession thereof under the 9 standards of subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph only if a
10 proper proceeding has been filed under the Illinois
11 Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, as now or 12 hereafter amended.

13 No order under this provision shall affect title to 14 property.

15 (11) Protection of property. Forbid the respondent
16 from taking, transferring, encumbering, concealing,
17 damaging or otherwise disposing of any real or personal 18 property, except as explicitly authorized by the court, if:

19 (i) petitioner, but not respondent, owns the 20 property; or

21 (ii) the parties own the property jointly, and the 22 balance of hardships favors granting this remedy.

23 If petitioner's sole claim to ownership of the property
24 is that it is marital property, the court may grant
25 petitioner relief under subparagraph (ii) of this 26 paragraph only if a proper proceeding has been filed under

1 the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, as
2 now or hereafter amended.

3 The court may further prohibit respondent from 4 improperly using the financial or other resources of an 5 aged member of the family or household for the profit or 6 advantage of respondent or of any other person.

7 (11.5) Protection of animals. Grant the petitioner the 8 exclusive care, custody, or control of any animal owned,
9 possessed, leased, kept, or held by either the petitioner
10 or the respondent or a minor child residing in the 11 residence or household of either the petitioner or the 12 respondent and order the respondent to stay away from the 13 animal and forbid the respondent from taking,
14 transferring, encumbering, concealing, harming, or 15 otherwise disposing of the animal.

16 (12) Order for payment of support. Order respondent to 17 pay temporary support for the petitioner or any child in 18 the petitioner's care or custody, when the respondent has a
19 legal obligation to support that person, in accordance with 20 the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act,
21 which shall govern, among other matters, the amount of 22 support, payment through the clerk and withholding of 23 income to secure payment. An order for child support may be 24 granted to a petitioner with lawful physical care or 25 custody of a child, or an order or agreement for physical 26 care or custody, prior to entry of an order for legal

1 custody. Such a support order shall expire upon entry of a
2 valid order granting legal custody to another, unless 3 otherwise provided in the custody order.

4 (13) Order for payment of losses. Order respondent to 5 pay petitioner for losses suffered as a direct result of 6 the abuse. Such losses shall include, but not be limited 7 to, medical expenses, lost earnings or other support, 8 repair or replacement of property damaged or taken,
9 reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and moving or other 10 travel expenses, including additional reasonable expenses
11 for temporary shelter and restaurant meals.

12 (i) Losses affecting family needs. If a party is 13 entitled to seek maintenance, child support or 14 property distribution from the other party under the 15 Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, as 16 now or hereafter amended, the court may order
17 respondent to reimburse petitioner's actual losses, to 18 the extent that such reimbursement would be
19 "appropriate temporary relief", as authorized by 20 subsection (a) (3) of Section 501 of that Act.

21 (ii) Recovery of expenses. In the case of an 22 improper concealment or removal of a minor child, the 23 court may order respondent to pay the reasonable
24 expenses incurred or to be incurred in the search for 25 and recovery of the minor child, including but not 26 limited to legal fees, court costs, private

1           investigator fees, and travel costs.

2           (14) Prohibition of entry. Prohibit the respondent
3           from entering or remaining in the residence or household
4           while the respondent is under the influence of alcohol or 5           drugs and constitutes a threat to the safety and well-being 6           of the petitioner or the petitioner's children.

7           (14.5) Prohibition of firearm possession. (a) When a 8           complaint is made under a request for an order of 9           protection, that the respondent has threatened or is likely 10          to use firearms illegally against the petitioner, and the 11          respondent is present in court, or has failed to appear 12          after receiving actual notice, the court shall examine on 13          oath the petitioner, and any witnesses who may be produced.
14          If the court is satisfied that there is any danger of the 15          illegal use of firearms, it shall include in the order of 16          protection the requirement that any firearms in the 17          possession of the respondent, except as provided in 18          subsection (b), be turned over to the local law enforcement 19          agency for safekeeping. If the respondent fails to appear, 20          or refuses or fails to surrender his or her firearms, the 21          court shall issue a warrant for seizure of any firearm in 22          the possession of the respondent. The period of safekeeping 23          shall be for a stated period of time not to exceed 2 years.
24          The firearm or firearms shall be returned to the respondent 25          at the end of the stated period or at expiration of the 26          order of protection, whichever is sooner. (b) If the

1           respondent is a peace officer as defined in Section 2-13 of 2           the Criminal Code of 1961, the court shall order that any 3           firearms used by the respondent in the performance of his 4           or her duties as a peace officer be surrendered to the 5           chief law enforcement executive of the agency in which the 6           respondent is employed, who shall retain the firearms for 7           safekeeping for the stated period not to exceed 2 years as 8           set forth in the court order.

9           (15) Prohibition of access to records. If an order of 10          protection prohibits respondent from having contact with 11          the minor child, or if petitioner's address is omitted
12          under subsection (b) of Section 112A-5, or if necessary to 13          prevent abuse or wrongful removal or concealment of a minor 14          child, the order shall deny respondent access to, and 15          prohibit respondent from inspecting, obtaining, or 16          attempting to inspect or obtain, school or any other
17          records of the minor child who is in the care of 18          petitioner.

19          (16) Order for payment of shelter services. Order
20          respondent to reimburse a shelter providing temporary 21          housing and counseling services to the petitioner for the 22          cost of the services, as certified by the shelter and 23          deemed reasonable by the court.

24          (17) Order for injunctive relief. Enter injunctive
25          relief necessary or appropriate to prevent further abuse of 26          a family or household member or to effectuate one of the 1 granted remedies, if supported by the balance of hardships.

2 If the harm to be prevented by the injunction is abuse or 3 any other harm that one of the remedies listed in 4 paragraphs (1) through (16) of this subsection is designed 5 to prevent, no further evidence is necessary to establish 6 that the harm is an irreparable injury.

7 (c) Relevant factors; findings.

8 (1) In determining whether to grant a specific remedy,
9 other than payment of support, the court shall consider
10 relevant factors, including but not limited to the 11 following:

12 (i) the nature, frequency, severity, pattern and 13 consequences of the respondent's past abuse of the 14 petitioner or any family or household member, 15 including the concealment of his or her location in 16 order to evade service of process or notice, and the 17 likelihood of danger of future abuse to petitioner or 18 any member of petitioner's or respondent's family or 19 household; and

20 (ii) the danger that any minor child will be abused
21 or neglected or improperly removed from the 22 jurisdiction, improperly concealed within the State or 23 improperly separated from the child's primary
24 caretaker.

25 (2) In comparing relative hardships resulting to the 26 parties from loss of possession of the family home, the

1 court shall consider relevant factors, including but not
2 limited to the following:

3 (i) availability, accessibility, cost, safety,
4 adequacy, location and other characteristics of 5 alternate housing for each party and any minor child or 6 dependent adult in the party's care;

7 (ii) the effect on the party's employment; and

8 (iii) the effect on the relationship of the party,
9 and any minor child or dependent adult in the party's
10 care, to family, school, church and community.

11 (3) Subject to the exceptions set forth in paragraph
12 (4) of this subsection, the court shall make its findings
13 in an official record or in writing, and shall at a minimum
14 set forth the following:

15 (i) That the court has considered the applicable
16 relevant factors described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of 17 this subsection.

18 (ii) Whether the conduct or actions of respondent,
19 unless prohibited, will likely cause irreparable harm
20 or continued abuse.

21 (iii) Whether it is necessary to grant the 22 requested relief in order to protect petitioner or 23 other alleged abused persons.

24 (4) For purposes of issuing an ex parte emergency order
25 of protection, the court, as an alternative to or as a
26 supplement to making the findings described in paragraphs

1 (c) (3) (i) through (c) (3) (iii) of this subsection, may use
2 the following procedure:

3 When a verified petition for an emergency order of 4 protection in accordance with the requirements of Sections
5 112A-5 and 112A-17 is presented to the court, the court
6 shall examine petitioner on oath or affirmation. An 7 emergency order of protection shall be issued by the court 8 if it appears from the contents of the petition and the 9 examination of petitioner that the averments are 10 sufficient to indicate abuse by respondent and to support
11 the granting of relief under the issuance of the emergency
12 order of protection.

13 (5) Never married parties. No rights or 14 responsibilities for a minor child born outside of marriage
15 attach to a putative father until a father and child
16 relationship has been established under the Illinois
17 Parentage Act of 1984. Absent such an adjudication, no 18 putative father shall be granted temporary custody of the 19 minor child, visitation with the minor child, or physical 20 care and possession of the minor child, nor shall an order 21 of payment for support of the minor child be entered.

22 (d) Balance of hardships; findings. If the court finds that 23 the balance of hardships does not support the granting of a
24 remedy governed by paragraph (2), (3), (10), (11), or (16) of 25 subsection (b) of this Section, which may require such 26 balancing, the court's findings shall so indicate and shall

1 include a finding as to whether granting the remedy will result
2 in hardship to respondent that would substantially outweigh the
3 hardship to petitioner from denial of the remedy. The findings
4 shall be an official record or in writing.

5 (e) Denial of remedies. Denial of any remedy shall not be 6 based, in whole or in part, on evidence that:

7 (1) Respondent has cause for any use of force, unless 8 that cause satisfies the standards for justifiable use of 9 force provided by Article VII of the Criminal Code of 1961;

10 (2) Respondent was voluntarily intoxicated;

11 (3) Petitioner acted in self-defense or defense of 12 another, provided that, if petitioner utilized force, such 13 force was justifiable under Article VII of the Criminal 14 Code of 1961;

15 (4) Petitioner did not act in self-defense or defense
16 of another;

17 (5) Petitioner left the residence or household to avoid 18 further abuse by respondent;

19 (6) Petitioner did not leave the residence or household
20 to avoid further abuse by respondent;

21 (7) Conduct by any family or household member excused 22 the abuse by respondent, unless that same conduct would 23 have excused such abuse if the parties had not been family 24 or household members.

25 (Source: P.A. 93-108, eff. 1-1-04.)

1           Section 10. The Illinois Domestic Violence Act of 1986 is 2 amended by changing Section 214 as follows:

3           (750 ILCS 60/214) (from Ch. 40, par. 2312-14)

4           Sec. 214. Order of protection; remedies.

5           (a) Issuance of order. If the court finds that petitioner
6 has been abused by a family or household member or that 7 petitioner is a high-risk adult who has been abused, neglected,
8 or exploited, as defined in this Act, an order of protection 9 prohibiting the abuse, neglect, or exploitation shall issue; 10 provided that petitioner must also satisfy the requirements of 11 one of the following Sections, as appropriate: Section 217 on 12 emergency orders, Section 218 on interim orders, or Section 219 13 on plenary orders. Petitioner shall not be denied an order of 14 protection because petitioner or respondent is a minor. The 15 court, when determining whether or not to issue an order of 16 protection, shall not require physical manifestations of abuse 17 on the person of the victim. Modification and extension of 18 prior orders of protection shall be in accordance with this 19 Act.

20           (b) Remedies and standards. The remedies to be included in 21 an order of protection shall be determined in accordance with
22 this Section and one of the following Sections, as appropriate:
23 Section 217 on emergency orders, Section 218 on interim orders, 24 and Section 219 on plenary orders. The remedies listed in this 25 subsection shall be in addition to other civil or criminal

1 remedies available to petitioner.

2 (1) Prohibition of abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
3 Prohibit respondent's harassment, interference with 4 personal liberty, intimidation of a dependent, physical 5 abuse, or willful deprivation, neglect or exploitation, as 6 defined in this Act, or stalking of the petitioner, as 7 defined in Section 12-7.3 of the Criminal Code of 1961, if 8 such abuse, neglect, exploitation, or stalking has 9 occurred or otherwise appears likely to occur if not 10 prohibited.

11 (2) Grant of exclusive possession of residence.
12 Prohibit respondent from entering or remaining in any
13 residence or household of the petitioner, including one
14 owned or leased by respondent, if petitioner has a right to 15 occupancy thereof. The grant of exclusive possession of the 16 residence shall not affect title to real property, nor 17 shall the court be limited by the standard set forth in 18 Section 701 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of 19 Marriage Act.

20 (A) Right to occupancy. A party has a right to 21 occupancy of a residence or household if it is solely
22 or jointly owned or leased by that party, that party's
23 spouse, a person with a legal duty to support that
24 party or a minor child in that party's care, or by any 25 person or entity other than the opposing party that 26 authorizes that party's occupancy (e.g., a domestic

1 violence shelter). Standards set forth in subparagraph
2 (B) shall not preclude equitable relief.

3 (B) Presumption of hardships. If petitioner and
4 respondent each has the right to occupancy of a
5 residence or household, the court shall balance (i) the 6 hardships to respondent and any minor child or
7 dependent adult in respondent's care resulting from
8 entry of this remedy with (ii) the hardships to
9 petitioner and any minor child or dependent adult in 10 petitioner's care resulting from continued exposure to
11 the risk of abuse (should petitioner remain at the 12 residence or household) or from loss of possession of 13 the residence or household (should petitioner leave to 14 avoid the risk of abuse). When determining the balance
15 of hardships, the court shall also take into account
16 the accessibility of the residence or household.
17 Hardships need not be balanced if respondent does not
18 have a right to occupancy.

19 The balance of hardships is presumed to favor
20 possession by petitioner unless the presumption is
21 rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence, showing
22 that the hardships to respondent substantially
23 outweigh the hardships to petitioner and any minor
24 child or dependent adult in petitioner's care. The
25 court, on the request of petitioner or on its own
26 motion, may order respondent to provide suitable,

1           accessible, alternate housing for petitioner instead
2           of excluding respondent from a mutual residence or 3           household.

4           (3) Stay away order and additional prohibitions. Order
5           respondent to stay away from petitioner or any other person
6           protected by the order of protection, or prohibit
7           respondent from entering or remaining present at 8           petitioner's school, place of employment, or other
9           specified places at times when petitioner is present, or 10          both, if reasonable, given the balance of hardships.
11          Hardships need not be balanced for the court to enter a
12          stay away order or prohibit entry if respondent has no
13          right to enter the premises.

14          If an order of protection grants petitioner exclusive
15          possession of the residence, or prohibits respondent from 16          entering the residence, or orders respondent to stay away
17          from petitioner or other protected persons, then the court
18          may allow respondent access to the residence to remove 19          items of clothing and personal adornment used exclusively
20          by respondent, medications, and other items as the court
21          directs. The right to access shall be exercised on only one 22          occasion as the court directs and in the presence of an 23          agreed-upon adult third party or law enforcement officer.

24          (4) Counseling. Require or recommend the respondent to 25          undergo counseling for a specified duration with a social 26          worker, psychologist, clinical psychologist, psychiatrist,

1 family service agency, alcohol or substance abuse program,
2 mental health center guidance counselor, agency providing
3 services to elders, program designed for domestic violence
4 abusers or any other guidance service the court deems
5 appropriate.

6 (5) Physical care and possession of the minor child. In 7 order to protect the minor child from abuse, neglect, or 8 unwarranted separation from the person who has been the 9 minor child's primary caretaker, or to otherwise protect
10 the well-being of the minor child, the court may do either
11 or both of the following: (i) grant petitioner physical
12 care or possession of the minor child, or both, or (ii)
13 order respondent to return a minor child to, or not remove
14 a minor child from, the physical care of a parent or person
15 in loco parentis.

16 If a court finds, after a hearing, that respondent has 17 committed abuse (as defined in Section 103) of a minor
18 child, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that
19 awarding physical care to respondent would not be in the 20 minor child's best interest.

21 (6) Temporary legal custody. Award temporary legal
22 custody to petitioner in accordance with this Section, the
23 Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, the
24 Illinois Parentage Act of 1984, and this State's Uniform
25 Child-Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

26 If a court finds, after a hearing, that respondent has

1 committed abuse (as defined in Section 103) of a minor
2 child, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that
3 awarding temporary legal custody to respondent would not be
4 in the child's best interest.

5 (7) Visitation. Determine the visitation rights, if
6 any, of respondent in any case in which the court awards
7 physical care or temporary legal custody of a minor child
8 to petitioner. The court shall restrict or deny
9 respondent's visitation with a minor child if the court
10 finds that respondent has done or is likely to do any of 11 the following: (i) abuse or endanger the minor child during 12 visitation; (ii) use the visitation as an opportunity to 13 abuse or harass petitioner or petitioner's family or 14 household members; (iii) improperly conceal or detain the 15 minor child; or (iv) otherwise act in a manner that is not 16 in the best interests of the minor child. The court shall
17 not be limited by the standards set forth in Section 607.1
18 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act.
19 If the court grants visitation, the order shall specify
20 dates and times for the visitation to take place or other
21 specific parameters or conditions that are appropriate. No
22 order for visitation shall refer merely to the term
23 "reasonable visitation".

24 Petitioner may deny respondent access to the minor
25 child if, when respondent arrives for visitation,
26 respondent is under the influence of drugs or alcohol and

1 constitutes a threat to the safety and well-being of
2 petitioner or petitioner's minor children or is behaving in
3 a violent or abusive manner.

4 If necessary to protect any member of petitioner's
5 family or household from future abuse, respondent shall be
6 prohibited from coming to petitioner's residence to meet
7 the minor child for visitation, and the parties shall
8 submit to the court their recommendations for reasonable
9 alternative arrangements for visitation. A person may be 10 approved to supervise visitation only after filing an
11 affidavit accepting that responsibility and acknowledging
12 accountability to the court.

13 (8) Removal or concealment of minor child. Prohibit
14 respondent from removing a minor child from the State or 15 concealing the child within the State.

16 (9) Order to appear. Order the respondent to appear in 17 court, alone or with a minor child, to prevent abuse,
18 neglect, removal or concealment of the child, to return the 19 child to the custody or care of the petitioner or to permit
20 any court-ordered interview or examination of the child or 21 the respondent.

22 (10) Possession of personal property. Grant petitioner
23 exclusive possession of personal property and, if
24 respondent has possession or control, direct respondent to 25 promptly make it available to petitioner, if:

26 (i) petitioner, but not respondent, owns the

1 property; or

2 (ii) the parties own the property jointly; sharing
3 it would risk abuse of petitioner by respondent or is
4 impracticable; and the balance of hardships favors
5 temporary possession by petitioner.

6 If petitioner's sole claim to ownership of the property
7 is that it is marital property, the court may award
8 petitioner temporary possession thereof under the
9 standards of subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph only if a
10 proper proceeding has been filed under the Illinois
11 Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, as now or 12 hereafter amended.

13 No order under this provision shall affect title to 14 property.

15 (11) Protection of property. Forbid the respondent
16 from taking, transferring, encumbering, concealing,
17 damaging or otherwise disposing of any real or personal
18 property, except as explicitly authorized by the court, if:

19 (i) petitioner, but not respondent, owns the 20 property; or

21 (ii) the parties own the property jointly, and the
22 balance of hardships favors granting this remedy.

23 If petitioner's sole claim to ownership of the property
24 is that it is marital property, the court may grant
25 petitioner relief under subparagraph (ii) of this
26 paragraph only if a proper proceeding has been filed under

1 the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, as
2 now or hereafter amended.

3 The court may further prohibit respondent from
4 improperly using the financial or other resources of an
5 aged member of the family or household for the profit or 6 advantage of respondent or of any other person.

7 (11.5) Protection of animals. Grant the petitioner the 8 exclusive care, custody, or control of any animal owned,
9 possessed, leased, kept, or held by either the petitioner
10 or the respondent or a minor child residing in the 11 residence or household of either the petitioner or the 12 respondent and order the respondent to stay away from the 13 animal and forbid the respondent from taking,
14 transferring, encumbering, concealing, harming, or
15 otherwise disposing of the animal.

16 (12) Order for payment of support. Order respondent to 17 pay temporary support for the petitioner or any child in 18 the petitioner's care or custody, when the respondent has a
19 legal obligation to support that person, in accordance with 20 the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act,
21 which shall govern, among other matters, the amount of
22 support, payment through the clerk and withholding of
23 income to secure payment. An order for child support may be 24 granted to a petitioner with lawful physical care or
25 custody of a child, or an order or agreement for physical 26 care or custody, prior to entry of an order for legal

1 custody. Such a support order shall expire upon entry of a
2 valid order granting legal custody to another, unless
3 otherwise provided in the custody order.

4 (13) Order for payment of losses. Order respondent to 5 pay petitioner for losses suffered as a direct result of 6 the abuse, neglect, or exploitation. Such losses shall 7 include, but not be limited to, medical expenses, lost 8 earnings or other support, repair or replacement of 9 property damaged or taken, reasonable attorney's fees, 10 court costs and moving or other travel expenses, including 11 additional reasonable expenses for temporary shelter and 12 restaurant meals.

13 (i) Losses affecting family needs. If a party is 14 entitled to seek maintenance, child support or
15 property distribution from the other party under the
16 Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, as
17 now or hereafter amended, the court may order
18 respondent to reimburse petitioner's actual losses, to
19 the extent that such reimbursement would be
20 "appropriate temporary relief", as authorized by 21 subsection (a) (3) of Section 501 of that Act.

22 (ii) Recovery of expenses. In the case of an
23 improper concealment or removal of a minor child, the 24 court may order respondent to pay the reasonable
25 expenses incurred or to be incurred in the search for 26 and recovery of the minor child, including but not

1           limited to legal fees, court costs, private
2           investigator fees, and travel costs.

3           (14) Prohibition of entry. Prohibit the respondent
4           from entering or remaining in the residence or household
5           while the respondent is under the influence of alcohol or 6           drugs and constitutes a threat to the safety and well-being 7           of the petitioner or the petitioner's children.

8           (14.5) Prohibition of firearm possession.

9           (a) When a complaint is made under a request for an 10          order of protection, that the respondent has 11          threatened or is likely to use firearms illegally
12          against the petitioner, and the respondent is present 13          in court, or has failed to appear after receiving 14          actual notice, the court shall examine on oath the 15          petitioner, and any witnesses who may be produced. If 16          the court is satisfied that there is any danger of the 17          illegal use of firearms, it shall issue an order that 18          any firearms in the possession of the respondent, 19          except as provided in subsection (b), be turned over to 20          the local law enforcement agency for safekeeping. If 21          the respondent has failed to appear, the court shall 22          issue a warrant for seizure of any firearm in the 23          possession of the respondent. The period of 24          safekeeping shall be for a stated period of time not to 25          exceed 2 years. The firearm or firearms shall be 26          returned to the respondent at the end of the stated

1 period or at expiration of the order of protection, 2 whichever is sooner.

3 (b) If the respondent is a peace officer as defined
4 in Section 2-13 of the Criminal Code of 1961, the court 5 shall order that any firearms used by the respondent in 6 the performance of his or her duties as a peace officer 7 be surrendered to the chief law enforcement executive 8 of the agency in which the respondent is employed, who 9 shall retain the firearms for safekeeping for the 10 stated period not to exceed 2 years as set forth in the 11 court order.

12 (15) Prohibition of access to records. If an order of 13 protection prohibits respondent from having contact with
14 the minor child, or if petitioner's address is omitted
15 under subsection (b) of Section 203, or if necessary to 16 prevent abuse or wrongful removal or concealment of a minor
17 child, the order shall deny respondent access to, and
18 prohibit respondent from inspecting, obtaining, or
19 attempting to inspect or obtain, school or any other
20 records of the minor child who is in the care of 21 petitioner.

22 (16) Order for payment of shelter services. Order
23 respondent to reimburse a shelter providing temporary
24 housing and counseling services to the petitioner for the
25 cost of the services, as certified by the shelter and 26 deemed reasonable by the court.

1           (17) Order for injunctive relief. Enter injunctive
2 relief necessary or appropriate to prevent further abuse of 3 a family or household member or further abuse, neglect, or 4 exploitation of a high-risk adult with disabilities or to 5 effectuate one of the granted remedies, if supported by the 6 balance of hardships. If the harm to be prevented by the 7 injunction is abuse or any other harm that one of the 8 remedies listed in paragraphs (1) through (16) of this 9 subsection is designed to prevent, no further evidence is 10 necessary that the harm is an irreparable injury.

11           (c) Relevant factors; findings.

12           (1) In determining whether to grant a specific remedy,
13 other than payment of support, the court shall consider
14 relevant factors, including but not limited to the 15 following:

16           (i) the nature, frequency, severity, pattern and 17 consequences of the respondent's past abuse, neglect 18 or exploitation of the petitioner or any family or 19 household member, including the concealment of his or 20 her location in order to evade service of process or 21 notice, and the likelihood of danger of future abuse, 22 neglect, or exploitation to petitioner or any member of 23 petitioner's or respondent's family or household; and

24           (ii) the danger that any minor child will be abused
25 or neglected or improperly removed from the 26 jurisdiction, improperly concealed within the State or

1           improperly separated from the child's primary
2           caretaker.

3           (2) In comparing relative hardships resulting to the 4           parties from loss of possession of the family home, the 5           court shall consider relevant factors, including but not
6           limited to the following:

7                   (i) availability, accessibility, cost, safety,
8                   adequacy, location and other characteristics of 9                   alternate housing for each party and any minor child or 10                  dependent adult in the party's care;

11                   (ii) the effect on the party's employment; and

12                   (iii) the effect on the relationship of the party,
13                   and any minor child or dependent adult in the party's 14                   care, to family, school, church and community.

15           (3) Subject to the exceptions set forth in paragraph
16           (4) of this subsection, the court shall make its findings
17           in an official record or in writing, and shall at a minimum
18           set forth the following:

19                   (i) That the court has considered the applicable
20                   relevant factors described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of 21                   this subsection.

22                   (ii) Whether the conduct or actions of respondent,
23                   unless prohibited, will likely cause irreparable harm
24                   or continued abuse.

25                   (iii) Whether it is necessary to grant the 26                   requested relief in order to protect petitioner or

1           other alleged abused persons.

2           (4) For purposes of issuing an ex parte emergency order
3 of protection, the court, as an alternative to or as a
4 supplement to making the findings described in paragraphs
5 (c)(3)(i) through (c)(3)(iii) of this subsection, may use
6 the following procedure:

7           When a verified petition for an emergency order of
8 protection in accordance with the requirements of Sections 9 203 and 217 is presented to the court, the court shall 10 examine petitioner on oath or affirmation. An emergency 11 order of protection shall be issued by the court if it 12 appears from the contents of the petition and the 13 examination of petitioner that the averments are
14 sufficient to indicate abuse by respondent and to support
15 the granting of relief under the issuance of the emergency
16 order of protection.

17           (5) Never married parties. No rights or
18 responsibilities for a minor child born outside of marriage
19 attach to a putative father until a father and child
20 relationship has been established under the Illinois
21 Parentage Act of 1984, the Illinois Public Aid Code,
22 Section 12 of the Vital Records Act, the Juvenile Court Act
23 of 1987, the Probate Act of 1985, the Revised Uniform
24 Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, the Uniform
25 Interstate Family Support Act, the Expedited Child Support 26 Act of 1990, any judicial, administrative, or other act of

1 another state or territory, any other Illinois statute, or 2 by any foreign nation establishing the father and child 3 relationship, any other proceeding substantially in 4 conformity with the Personal Responsibility and Work
5 Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (Pub. L. 104-193), 6 or where both parties appeared in open court or at an 7 administrative hearing acknowledging under oath or 8 admitting by affirmation the existence of a father and 9 child relationship. Absent such an adjudication, finding, 10 or acknowledgement, no putative father shall be granted 11 temporary custody of the minor child, visitation with the 12 minor child, or physical care and possession of the minor 13 child, nor shall an order of payment for support of the 14 minor child be entered.

15 (d) Balance of hardships; findings. If the court finds that
16 the balance of hardships does not support the granting of a
17 remedy governed by paragraph (2), (3), (10), (11), or (16) of 18 subsection (b) of this Section, which may require such 19 balancing, the court's findings shall so indicate and shall
20 include a finding as to whether granting the remedy will result
21 in hardship to respondent that would substantially outweigh the
22 hardship to petitioner from denial of the remedy. The findings
23 shall be an official record or in writing.

24 (e) Denial of remedies. Denial of any remedy shall not be 25 based, in whole or in part, on evidence that:

26 (1) Respondent has cause for any use of force, unless

1           that cause satisfies the standards for justifiable use of
2           force provided by Article VII of the Criminal Code of 1961;

3           (2) Respondent was voluntarily intoxicated;

4           (3) Petitioner acted in self-defense or defense of
5           another, provided that, if petitioner utilized force, such 6           force was justifiable under Article VII of the Criminal
7           Code of 1961;

8           (4) Petitioner did not act in self-defense or defense
9           of another;

10          (5) Petitioner left the residence or household to avoid 11          further abuse, neglect, or exploitation by respondent;

12          (6) Petitioner did not leave the residence or household 13          to avoid further abuse, neglect, or exploitation by 14          respondent;

15          (7) Conduct by any family or household member excused 16          the abuse, neglect, or exploitation by respondent, unless 17          that same conduct would have excused such abuse, neglect, 18          or exploitation if the parties had not been family or 19          household members.
