HOUSE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, In the last 5 years, according to a United States Department of Labor report presented to Congress in 2005, 5,690 veterans have lost their jobs in both the private and the public employment sectors while activated to serve a tour of duty; those numbers are expected to increase because, of the 300,000 deployed reservists, as many as 25,000 veterans were expected to return home in 2005 to reintegrate themselves back into civilian life after a tour of duty in the global war against terrorism; and

11

WHEREAS, In 2006, many reports of possible violations of the Veterans Preference Act and other laws providing for hiring preferences for service members were heard; and

13

14

WHEREAS, State of Illinois hiring practices should be monitored for compliance with State hiring preference laws; and 15

16

WHEREAS, State of Illinois hiring practices should be open to observation by the general public to curb violations of those hiring preference laws and to protect the integrity of veterans preference programs; therefore, be it
