- 1 disabilities. The database shall be operational by July 1, 2 2004. The information collected and maintained for the disability database shall include, but is not limited to, the 3 following: (i) the types of services of which the individual is 5 potentially in need; (ii) demographic and identifying 6 information about the individual; (iii) factors indicating need, including diagnoses, assessment information, age of 7 8 primary caregivers, and current living situation; (iv) if 9 applicable, the date information about the individual is submitted for inclusion in the database and the types of 10 11 services sought by the individual; and (v) the representative 12 district in which the individual resides. In collecting and 13 maintaining information under this Section, the Department shall give consideration to cost-effective appropriate 14 15 services for individuals.
  - (b) This amendatory Act of the 93rd General Assembly does not create any new entitlement to a service, program, or benefit, but shall not affect any entitlement to a service, program, or benefit created by any other law. Except for a service, program, or benefit that is an entitlement, a service, program, or benefit provided as a result of the collection and maintenance of the disability database shall be subject to appropriations made by the General Assembly.
  - (c) The Department, consistent with applicable federal and State law, shall make general information from the disability database available to the public such as: (i) the number of

- individuals potentially in need of each type of service, 1
- 2 program, or benefit and (ii) the general characteristics of
- 3 those individuals. The Department shall protect the
- confidentiality of each individual in the database 4 when
- 5 releasing database information by not disclosing any
- 6 personally identifying information.

- 8 Section 10. The Developmental Disability and Mental
- 9 Disability Services Act is amended by adding Section 5-4 as
- 10 follows:
- 11 (405 ILCS 80/5-4 new)
- Sec. 5-4. Home and Community-Based Services Waivers; 12
- autism spectrum disorder. A person diagnosed with an autism 13
- 14 spectrum disorder may be assessed for eligibility for services
- 15 under Home and Community-Based Services Waivers for persons
- with developmental disabilities, without regard to whether 16
- 17 that person is also diagnosed with mental retardation, so long
- as the person otherwise meets applicable level-of-care 18
- criteria under those waivers. This amendatory Act of the 95th 19
- 20 General Assembly does not create any new entitlement to a
- service, program, or benefit, but shall not affect any 21
- entitlement to a service, program, or benefit created by any 22
- 23 other law.
- 24 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon becoming law. 1
