SB2594 Engrossed

1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, 3 represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The Illinois Parentage Act of 1984 is amended by changing Section 14 as follows:

6 (750 ILCS 45/14) (from Ch. 40, par. 2514)

7 Sec. 14. Judgment.

(a) (1) The judgment shall contain or explicitly reserve 8 9 provisions concerning any duty and amount of child support and may contain provisions concerning the custody and guardianship 10 of the child, visitation privileges with the child, the 11 furnishing of bond or other security for the payment of the 12 judgment, which the court shall determine in accordance with 13 14 the relevant factors set forth in the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act and any other applicable law of 15 16 Illinois, to guide the court in a finding in the best interests 17 of the child. In determining custody, joint custody, removal, or visitation, the court shall apply the relevant standards of 18 19 Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, the including Section 609. Specifically, in determining the amount 20 21 of any child support award or child health insurance coverage, 22 the court shall use the guidelines and standards set forth in subsection (a) of Section 505 and in Section 505.2 of the 23

Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act. For purposes 1 2 of Section 505 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, "net income" of the non-custodial parent shall 3 include any benefits available to that person under the 4 5 Illinois Public Aid Code or from other federal, State or local government-funded programs. The court shall, in any event and 6 7 regardless of the amount of the non-custodial parent's net 8 income, in its judgment order the non-custodial parent to pay 9 child support to the custodial parent in a minimum amount of 10 not less than $10 per month, as long as such an order is 11 consistent with the requirements of Title IV, Part D of the 12 Social Security Act. In an action brought within 2 years after a judicial determination of parentage a child's birth, the 13 14 judgment or order may direct either parent to pay the 15 reasonable expenses incurred by either parent or the Department of Healthcare and Family Services related to the mother's 16 17 pregnancy and the delivery of the child. The judgment or order shall contain the father's social security number, which the 18 father shall disclose to the court; however, failure to include 19 20 the father's social security number on the judgment or order 21 does not invalidate the judgment or order.

(2) If a judgment of parentage contains no explicit award of custody, the establishment of a support obligation or of visitation rights in one parent shall be considered a judgment granting custody to the other parent. If the parentage judgment contains no such provisions, custody shall be presumed to be with the mother; however, the presumption shall not apply if 1 2 the father has had physical custody for at least 6 months prior to the date that the mother seeks to enforce custodial rights. 3

(b) The court shall order all child support payments, 4 5 determined in accordance with such guidelines, to commence with the date summons is served. The level of current periodic 6 7 support payments shall not be reduced because of payments set 8 for the period prior to the date of entry of the support order. 9 The Court may order any child support payments to be made for a 10 period prior to the commencement of the action. In determining 11 whether and the extent to which the payments shall be made for 12 any prior period, the court shall consider all relevant facts, including the factors for determining the amount of support 13 14 specified in the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage 15 Act and other equitable factors including but not limited to:

(1)The father's prior knowledge of the fact and 17 circumstances of the child's birth.

(2) The father's prior willingness or refusal to help 18 19 raise or support the child.

20 (3) The extent to which the mother or the public agency 21 bringing the action previously informed the father of the 22 child's needs or attempted to seek or require his help in 23 raising or supporting the child.

24 (4) The reasons the mother or the public agency did not 25 file the action earlier.

26

(5) The extent to which the father would be prejudiced by the delay in bringing the action.

For purposes of determining the amount of child support to be paid for any period before the date the order for current child support is entered, there is a rebuttable presumption that the father's net income for the prior period was the same as his net income at the time the order for current child support is entered.

8 If (i) the non-custodial parent was properly served with a 9 request for discovery of financial information relating to the 10 non-custodial parent's ability to provide child support, (ii) 11 the non-custodial parent failed to comply with the request, 12 despite having been ordered to do so by the court, and (iii) 13 the non-custodial parent is not present at the hearing to determine support despite having received proper notice, then 14 15 anv relevant financial information concerning the 16 non-custodial parent's ability to provide child support that 17 was obtained pursuant to subpoena and proper notice shall be admitted into evidence without the need to establish any 18 further foundation for its admission. 19

(c) Any new or existing support order entered by the court under this Section shall be deemed to be a series of judgments against the person obligated to pay support thereunder, each judgment to be in the amount of each payment or installment of support and each such judgment to be deemed entered as of the date the corresponding payment or installment becomes due under the terms of the support order. Each judgment shall have the SB2594 Engrossed - 5 - LRB095 17419 AJO 43491 b full force, effect and attributes of any other judgment of this State, including the ability to be enforced. A lien arises by operation of law against the real and personal property of the noncustodial parent for each installment of overdue support owed by the noncustodial parent.

6 (d) If the judgment or order of the court is at variance 7 with the child's birth certificate, the court shall order that 8 a new birth certificate be issued under the Vital Records Act.

9 (e) On request of the mother and the father, the court 10 shall order a change in the child's name. After hearing 11 evidence the court may stay payment of support during the 12 period of the father's minority or period of disability.

(f) If, upon a showing of proper service, the father fails to appear in court, or otherwise appear as provided by law, the court may proceed to hear the cause upon testimony of the mother or other parties taken in open court and shall enter a judgment by default. The court may reserve any order as to the amount of child support until the father has received notice, by regular mail, of a hearing on the matter.

(g) A one-time charge of 20% is imposable upon the amount of past-due child support owed on July 1, 1988 which has accrued under a support order entered by the court. The charge shall be imposed in accordance with the provisions of Section 10-21 of the Illinois Public Aid Code and shall be enforced by the court upon petition.

(h) All orders for support, when entered or modified, shall include a provision requiring the non-custodial parent to 1 2 notify the court and, in cases in which party is receiving child support enforcement services under Article X of the 3 Illinois Public Aid Code, the Department of Healthcare and 4 5 Family Services, within 7 days, (i) of the name and address of any new employer of the non-custodial parent, (ii) whether the 6 7 non-custodial parent has access to health insurance coverage 8 through the employer or other group coverage and, if so, the 9 policy name and number and the names of persons covered under 10 the policy, and (iii) of any new residential or mailing address 11 or telephone number of the non-custodial parent. In any 12 subsequent action to enforce a support order, upon a sufficient 13 showing that a diligent effort has been made to ascertain the 14 location of the non-custodial parent, service of process or 15 provision of notice necessary in the case may be made at the 16 last known address of the non-custodial parent in any manner 17 expressly provided by the Code of Civil Procedure or this Act, which service shall be sufficient for purposes of due process. 18

(i) An order for support shall include a date on which the 19 20 current support obligation terminates. The termination date shall be no earlier than the date on which the child covered by 21 22 the order will attain the age of 18. However, if the child will 23 not graduate from high school until after attaining the age of 18, then the termination date shall be no earlier than the 24 25 earlier of the date on which the child's high school graduation will occur or the date on which the child will attain the age 26 of 19. The order for support shall state that the termination date does not apply to any arrearage that may remain unpaid on that date. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the court from modifying the order or terminating the order in the event the child is otherwise emancipated.

(i-5) If there is an unpaid arrearage or delinguency (as 6 those terms are defined in the Income Withholding for Support 7 8 Act) equal to at least one month's support obligation on the 9 termination date stated in the order for support or, if there 10 is no termination date stated in the order, on the date the 11 child attains the age of majority or is otherwise emancipated, 12 the periodic amount required to be paid for current support of 13 that child immediately prior to that date shall automatically 14 continue to be an obligation, not as current support but as 15 periodic payment toward satisfaction of the unpaid arrearage or 16 delinquency. That periodic payment shall be in addition to any 17 periodic payment previously required for satisfaction of the arrearage or delinguency. The total periodic amount to be paid 18 toward satisfaction of the arrearage or delinquency may be 19 20 enforced and collected by any method provided by law for enforcement and collection of child support, including but not 21 22 limited to income withholding under the Income Withholding for 23 Support Act. Each order for support entered or modified on or after the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 93rd 24 25 General Assembly must contain a statement notifying the parties 26 of the requirements of this subsection. Failure to include the SB2594 Engrossed - 8 - LRB095 17419 AJO 43491 b statement in the order for support does not affect the validity 1 2 of the order or the operation of the provisions of this subsection with regard to the order. This subsection shall not 3 be construed to prevent or affect the establishment or 4 5 modification of an order for support of a minor child or the establishment or modification of an order for support of a 6 7 non-minor child or educational expenses under Section 513 of 8 the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act.

9 (j) An order entered under this Section shall include a 10 provision requiring the obligor to report to the obligee and to 11 the clerk of court within 10 days each time the obligor obtains 12 new employment, and each time the obligor's employment is 13 terminated for any reason. The report shall be in writing and 14 shall, in the case of new employment, include the name and 15 address of the new employer. Failure to report new employment 16 or the termination of current employment, if coupled with 17 nonpayment of support for a period in excess of 60 days, is indirect criminal contempt. For any obligor arrested for 18 19 failure to report new employment bond shall be set in the 20 amount of the child support that should have been paid during the period of unreported employment. An order entered under 21 22 this Section shall also include a provision requiring the 23 obligor and obligee parents to advise each other of a change in residence within 5 days of the change except when the court 24 25 finds that the physical, mental, or emotional health of a party that of a minor child, or both, would be seriously 26 or
