SENATE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois Senate are saddened to learn of the death of Alice Kreiman of Evanston, who passed away on January 31, 2007; and

3

4

5

WHEREAS, Alice Kreiman was born on May 14, 1935 in Newark, New Jersey; and

6

7

WHEREAS, She served on the boards of the Warren Cherry Scholarship Fund, the Evanston Art Center, Housing Options for the Mentally Ill, the McGaw YMCA, the Evanston School Children's Clothing Association, and Invest; and

10

11

WHEREAS, Alice Kreiman served on the board of the Evanston Art Center, where she chaired and ran the two-week long holiday market for more than 17 years; and 12

13

14

WHEREAS, After being involved with the 1970 election for the Evanston-Skokie District 65 School Board, an election that concerned voluntary desegregation, Alice Kreiman decided to run for office and successfully won election to the District 65 School Board, where she served as its president for three years; after she left the school board, she continued to work for education by supporting many future school board candidates, advising them on issues and campaign strategy; and

15
