1 AN ACT concerning State government.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

- Section 5. The Secretary of State Act is amended by adding Section 5.15 as follows:
- 6 (15 ILCS 305/5.15 new)
- 7 Sec. 5.15. Deposit of wills.
- 8 (a) Definitions. As used in this Section:
- 9 "Depositor" means an attorney licensed or formerly
- 10 licensed to practice in the State of Illinois, the attorney's
- 11 representative, the guardian for the attorney, or the personal
- representative of the attorney's decedent's estate.
- "Testator" means a person who executed a will, other than
- 14 as a witness or official to whom acknowledgment of signing was
- 15 given.
- 16 "Will" refers to an original:
- 17 (1) will;
- 18 (2) codicil;
- 19 (3) will and one or more codicils;
- 20 (4) trust; or
- 21 (5) trust and one or more trust amendments.
- 22 (b) Deposit of wills. A depositor may deposit a will with
- 23 the Secretary of State if the depositor certifies in writing to

- 2 LRB096 03114 RCE 13130 b
- 1 the Secretary of State that the depositor is unable to locate
- 2 the testator after a diligent search. The certification shall
- 3 be on a form to be provided by the Secretary. This Section
- applies whether it is known or unknown whether the testator is 4
- 5 livina.
- (c) Assumptions. The Secretary of State may assume, without 6
- 7 inquiring into the facts, that the depositor has first made a
- 8 diligent search for the testator.
- 9 (d) Fee. The Secretary of State shall collect a fee of $15
- for each deposit of a will. The Secretary of State shall not 10
- 11 collect a separate fee for additional documents concurrently
- 12 deposited in relation to a single testator or for a single
- joint will prepared for a husband and wife. 13
- 14 (e) Duty of Secretary of State upon receipt. Upon receipt
- of a will under this Section, the Secretary of State shall: 15
- 16 (1) provide the depositor with a receipt for the will,
- which receipt shall contain the information designated on 17
- 18 the envelope in accordance with paragraph (3) of this
- 19 subsection;
- 20 (2) place the will or wills deposited concurrently in
- 21 relation to a single testator in one envelope and seal the
- 22 envelope securely in the presence of the depositor or
- 23 depositor's agent;
- 24 (3) designate on the envelope:
- 25 (A) the date of deposit;
- 26 (B) the name, address, and telephone number of the depositor; (C) the name and last known address of the testator as provided by the depositor; (D) at the depositor's option, any and all of the following information: (i) alternate names by which the testator may have been known; (ii) the testator's birth date, and (iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (iii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator; (ii) a person authorized, in writing signed by the

as provided by the depositor; (D) at the depositor's option, any and all of the following information: (i) alternate names by which the testator may have been known; (ii) the testator's birth date, and (iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (q) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	1	depositor;
(D) at the depositor's option, any and all of the following information: (i) alternate names by which the testator may have been known; (ii) the testator's birth date, and (iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	2	(C) the name and last known address of the testator
following information: (i) alternate names by which the testator may have been known; (ii) the testator's birth date, and (iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	3	as provided by the depositor;
(i) alternate names by which the testator may have been known; (ii) the testator's birth date, and (iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	4	(D) at the depositor's option, any and all of the
have been known; (ii) the testator's birth date, and (iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	5	following information:
(ii) the testator's birth date, and (iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	6	(i) alternate names by which the testator may
(iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to:	7	have been known;
Social Security number; and (E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	8	(ii) the testator's birth date, and
(E) with respect to each document enclosed: (i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	9	(iii) the last 4 digits of the testator's
(i) a short description of the document, including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (ii) the testator;	10	Social Security number; and including, if shown, its date of execution; and (ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	11	(E) with respect to each document enclosed:
(ii) the number of pages in the document; and (4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	12	(i) a short description of the document,
(4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	13	including, if shown, its date of execution; and testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	14	(ii) the number of pages in the document; and testator may have been known. (f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	15	(4) index the will alphabetically by the name of the
(f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	16	testator, and by the alternate names set forth by which the deposited under this Section are not public records. The index created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	17	testator may have been known.
created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record. (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	18	(f) Status as a public record. An envelope and will
21 (g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime. 22 During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: 23 (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and 24 (2) deliver the envelope to: 25 (i) the testator;	19	deposited under this Section are not public records. The index
During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall: (1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	20	created under item (4) of subsection (e) is a public record.
(1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and (2) deliver the envelope to: (i) the testator;	21	(g) Duty of Secretary of State during testator's lifetime.
24 (2) deliver the envelope to: 25 (i) the testator;	22	During the testator's lifetime, the Secretary of State shall:
25 (i) the testator;	23	(1) keep the envelope containing the will sealed; and
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · 	24	(2) deliver the envelope to:
26 (ii) a person authorized, in writing signed by the	25	(i) the testator;
	26	(ii) a person authorized, in writing signed by the testator and notarized, to receive the envelope; or

(iii) a person, entity, court, or government agency authorized to receive the envelope pursuant to an order entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(h) Duty of Secretary of State upon notification of death of testator. If the Secretary of State has custody of the will after the death of the testator and is notified of the death of the testator by means of a certified copy of the testator's death certificate or by a certified copy of an order of court determining the testator to be deceased, upon receipt of payment of a retrieval fee in the amount of $10, the Secretary of State shall promptly deliver the sealed will envelope to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the probate of the testator's will may occur as determined under Section 5-1 of the Probate Act of 1975 (755 ILCS 5/5-1).

(i) Duties of Secretary of State upon inquiry. Upon inquiry by a person identified in paragraph (2) of subsection (q), or upon inquiry of any person presenting a certified copy of the testator's death certificate or a certified copy of an order of a court determining the testator to be deceased, the Secretary of State shall inform the person whether the name of the relevant testator appears in the Secretary of State's index of wills. For the purposes of this subsection, the Secretary of State need not be certain that the testator is the one being inquired about, but may release that information if it is possible that the testator is that one.

- 1 (j) Destruction of will. The Secretary of State may destroy
- 2 a will deposited under this Section if:
- 3 (1) the Secretary of State has not received notice of
- 4 the death of the testator; and
- 5 (2) at least 100 years have passed since the date the
- 6 will was deposited.
- 7 (k) All fees received by the Secretary of State under this
- 8 Section must be deposited into the Secretary of State Special
- 9 Services Fund.
- 10 Section 10. The Probate Act of 1975 is amended by changing
- 11 Section 6-1 as follows:
- 12 (755 ILCS 5/6-1) (from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 6-1)
- Sec. 6-1. Duty to file will altering, destroying or
- 14 secreting.)
- 15 (a) Immediately upon the death of the testator any person
- 16 who has the testator's will in his possession shall file it
- 17 with the clerk of the court of the proper county and upon
- 18 failure or refusal to do so, the court on its motion or on the
- 19 petition of any interested person may issue an attachment and
- 20 compel the production of the will, subject to the provisions of
- 21 Section 5.15 of the Secretary of State Act.
- 22 (b) If any person wilfully alters or destroys a will
- 23 without the direction of the testator or wilfully secretes it
- for the period of 30 days after the death of the testator is

- known to him, the person so offending, on conviction thereof, 1
- shall be sentenced as in cases of theft of property classified 2
- 3 as a Class 3 felony by the law in effect at the date of the
- offense. The 30-day period does not apply to the Secretary of 4
- 5 State when acting pursuant to Section 5.15 of the Secretary of
- 6 State Act.
- 7 (Source: P.A. 90-159, eff. 7-23-97.)