

1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 3. The Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 is 5 amended by changing Section 112A-17 as follows:

6 (725 ILCS 5/112A-17) (from Ch. 38, par. 112A-17)

7 Sec. 112A-17. Emergency order of protection.

8 (a) Prerequisites. An emergency order of protection shall 9 issue if petitioner satisfies the requirements of this
10 subsection for one or more of the requested remedies. For each
11 remedy requested, petitioner shall establish that:

12 (1) The court has jurisdiction under Section 112A-9;

13 (2) The requirements of Section 112A-14 are satisfied;

14 and

15 (3) There is good cause to grant the remedy, regardless
16 of prior service of process or of notice upon the 17 respondent, because:

18 (i) For the remedies of "prohibition of abuse"
19 described in Section 112A-14(b)(1), "stay away order 20 and additional prohibitions" described in Section 21 112A-14(b)(3), "removal or concealment of minor child" 22 described in Section 112A-14(b)(8), "order to appear" 23 described in Section 112A-14(b)(9), "physical care and

1 possession of the minor child" described in Section 2 112A-14(b)(5), "protection of property" described in 3 Section 112A-14(b)(11), "prohibition of entry" 4 described in Section 112A-14(b)(14), "prohibition of 5 access to records" described in Section 6 112A-14(b)(15), and "injunctive relief" described in 7 Section 112A-14(b)(16), the harm which that remedy is 8 intended to prevent would be likely to occur if the 9 respondent were given any prior notice, or greater
10 notice than was actually given, of the petitioner's
11 efforts to obtain judicial relief;

12 (ii) For the remedy of "grant of exclusive
13 possession of residence" described in Section
14 112A-14(b)(2), the immediate danger of further abuse 15 of petitioner by respondent, if petitioner chooses or 16 had chosen to remain in the residence or household 17 while respondent was given any prior notice or greater 18 notice than was actually given of petitioner's efforts 19 to obtain judicial relief, outweighs the hardships to 20 respondent of an emergency order granting petitioner
21 exclusive possession of the residence or household.
22 This remedy shall not be denied because petitioner has 23 or could obtain temporary shelter elsewhere while 24 prior notice is given to respondent, unless the 25 hardships to respondent from exclusion from the home
26 substantially outweigh those to petitioner.

1           (iii) For the remedy of "possession of personal
2           property" described in Section 112A-14(b)(10), 3           improper disposition of the personal property would be 4           likely to occur if respondent were given any prior 5           notice, or greater notice than was actually given, of 6           petitioner's efforts to obtain judicial relief, or 7           petitioner has an immediate and pressing need for 8           possession of that property.

9           An emergency order may not include the counseling, legal 10          custody, payment of support or monetary compensation remedies.

11          (b) Appearance by respondent. If respondent appears in 12          court for this hearing for an emergency order, he or she may 13          elect to file a general appearance and testify. Any resulting 14          order may be an emergency order, governed by this Section.
15          Notwithstanding the requirements of this Section, if all 16          requirements of Section 112A-18 have been met, the Court may 17          issue a 30-day interim order.

18          (c) Emergency orders: court holidays and evenings.

19           (1) Prerequisites. When the court is unavailable at the 20           close of business, the petitioner may file a petition for a
21           21-day emergency order before any available circuit judge
22           or associate judge who may grant relief under this Article.
23           If the judge finds that there is an immediate and present 24           danger of abuse to petitioner and that petitioner has 25           satisfied the prerequisites set forth in subsection (a) of 26           Section 112A-17, that judge may issue an emergency order of 1 protection.

2 (1.5) Issuance of order. The chief judge of the circuit
3 court may designate for each county in the circuit at least 4 one judge to be reasonably available to issue orally, by 5 telephone, by facsimile, or otherwise, an emergency order
6 of protection at all times, whether or not the court is in 7 session.

8 (2) Certification and transfer. The judge who issued
9 the order under this Section shall promptly communicate or 10 convey the order to the sheriff to facilitate the entry of 11 the order into the Law Enforcement Agencies Data System by 12 the Department of State Police pursuant to Section 112A-28.
13 Any order issued under this Section and any documentation
14 in support thereof shall be certified on the next court day 15 to the appropriate court. The clerk of that court shall 16 immediately assign a case number, file the petition, order
17 and other documents with the court and enter the order of 18 record and file it with the sheriff for service, in 19 accordance with Section 112A-22. Filing the petition shall 20 commence proceedings for further relief, under Section 21 112A-2. Failure to comply with the requirements of this 22 subsection shall not affect the validity of the order.

24 Section 5. The Illinois Domestic Violence Act of 1986 is 25 amended by changing Section 217 as follows:

1 (750 ILCS 60/217) (from Ch. 40, par. 2312-17)

2 Sec. 217. Emergency order of protection.

3 (a) Prerequisites. An emergency order of protection shall 4 issue if petitioner satisfies the requirements of this
5 subsection for one or more of the requested remedies. For each
6 remedy requested, petitioner shall establish that:

7 (1) The court has jurisdiction under Section 208;

8 (2) The requirements of Section 214 are satisfied; and

9 (3) There is good cause to grant the remedy, regardless
10 of prior service of process or of notice upon the 11 respondent, because:

12 (i) For the remedies of "prohibition of abuse" 13 described in Section 214(b)(1), "stay away order and 14 additional prohibitions" described in Section 15 214(b)(3), "removal or concealment of minor child" 16 described in Section 214(b)(8), "order to appear" 17 described in Section 214(b)(9), "physical care and 18 possession of the minor child" described in Section 19 214(b)(5), "protection of property" described in 20 Section 214(b)(11), "prohibition of entry" described 21 in Section 214(b)(14), "prohibition of firearm 22 possession" described in Section 214(b)(14.5), 23 "prohibition of access to records" described in 24 Section 214(b)(15), and "injunctive relief" described 25 in Section 214(b)(16), the harm which that remedy is

1 intended to prevent would be likely to occur if the
2 respondent were given any prior notice, or greater
3 notice than was actually given, of the petitioner's
4 efforts to obtain judicial relief;

5 (ii) For the remedy of "grant of exclusive
6 possession of residence" described in Section 7 214(b)(2), the immediate danger of further abuse of 8 petitioner by respondent, if petitioner chooses or had 9 chosen to remain in the residence or household while 10 respondent was given any prior notice or greater notice 11 than was actually given of petitioner's efforts to 12 obtain judicial relief, outweighs the hardships to 13 respondent of an emergency order granting petitioner
14 exclusive possession of the residence or household.
15 This remedy shall not be denied because petitioner has 16 or could obtain temporary shelter elsewhere while 17 prior notice is given to respondent, unless the
18 hardships to respondent from exclusion from the home
19 substantially outweigh those to petitioner;

20 (iii) For the remedy of "possession of personal 21 property" described in Section 214(b)(10), improper 22 disposition of the personal property would be likely to 23 occur if respondent were given any prior notice, or 24 greater notice than was actually given, of 25 petitioner's efforts to obtain judicial relief, or 26 petitioner has an immediate and pressing need for

1           possession of that property.

2           An emergency order may not include the counseling, legal 3 custody, payment of support or monetary compensation remedies.

4           (b) Appearance by respondent. If respondent appears in 5 court for this hearing for an emergency order, he or she may 6 elect to file a general appearance and testify. Any resulting 7 order may be an emergency order, governed by this Section.
8 Notwithstanding the requirements of this Section, if all
9 requirements of Section 218 have been met, the court may issue
10 a 30-day interim order.

11           (c) Emergency orders: court holidays and evenings.

12           (1) Prerequisites. When the court is unavailable at the 13 close of business, the petitioner may file a petition for a
14 21-day emergency order before any available circuit judge 15 or associate judge who may grant relief under this Act. If 16 the judge finds that there is an immediate and present
17 danger of abuse to petitioner and that petitioner has 18 satisfied the prerequisites set forth in subsection (a) of 19 Section 217, that judge may issue an emergency order of 20 protection.

21           (1.5) Issuance of order. The chief judge of the circuit
22 court may designate for each county in the circuit at least
23 one judge to be reasonably available to issue orally, by 24 telephone, by facsimile, or otherwise, an emergency order
25 of protection at all times, whether or not the court is in 26 session.

1           (2) Certification and transfer. The judge who issued
2           the order under this Section shall promptly communicate or 3           convey the order to the sheriff to facilitate the entry of 4           the order into the Law Enforcement Agencies Data System by 5           the Department of State Police pursuant to Section 302. Any 6           order issued under this Section and any documentation in 7           support thereof shall be certified on the next court day to 8           the appropriate court. The clerk of that court shall 9           immediately assign a case number, file the petition, order
10          and other documents with the court, and enter the order of 11          record and file it with the sheriff for service, in 12          accordance with Section 222. Filing the petition shall 13          commence proceedings for further relief under Section 202.
14          Failure to comply with the requirements of this subsection 15          shall not affect the validity of the order.
