

1 AN ACT concerning higher education credit card marketing.

2 WHEREAS, in 2005, student loan provider Nellie Mae found 3 that over half of all students graduating from an undergraduate 4 program of study had an average of 4 credit cards and an 5 average outstanding balance of $3,000; and

6 WHEREAS, credit card debt compounds the significant 7 student loan debt that many students pursuing an undergraduate 8 education have assumed; and

9 WHEREAS, the cost of attending a program of undergraduate 10 study has increased significantly in recent years; and

11 WHEREAS, the historically cash-strapped undergraduate 12 student is particularly vulnerable to the activities of 13 predatory lenders; and

14 WHEREAS, the General Assembly finds that it is in the best 15 interest of the State of Illinois to ensure that its 16 institutions of higher education prepare students to handle 17 credit and debt responsibly; therefore

18 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
19 represented in the General Assembly:

1 Section 1. Short title. This Act may be cited as the Credit
2 Card Marketing Act of 2009.

3 Section 5. Definitions. As used in this Act:

4 "Credit card" means a card or device issued under an 5 agreement by which the credit card issuer gives to a cardholder 6 residing in the State of Illinois the privilege of obtaining 7 credit from the credit card issuer or another person in 8 connection with the purchase or lease of goods or services 9 primarily for personal, family, or household use.

10 "Credit card issuer" means a financial institution, a 12 receives applications and issues credit cards to individuals.

13 "Credit card marketing activity" means any action designed 14 to promote the completion of an application by a student to 15 qualify to receive a credit card. Credit card marketing 16 activity includes, but is not limited to, the act of placing a 17 display or poster together with credit card applications on a 18 campus of an institution of higher education in the State of 19 Illinois, whether or not an employee or agent of the credit 20 card issuer attends the display. "Credit card marketing 21 activity" does not include promotional activity of a credit 22 card issuer in a newspaper, magazine, or other similar 23 publication or within the physical location of a financial 24 services business located on the campus of an institution of 25 higher education, when that activity is conducted as a part of

1 the financial services business's regular course of business.

2 "Institution of higher education" means any publicly or 3 privately operated university, college, community college, 4 junior college, business, technical or vocational school, or 5 other educational institution offering degrees and instruction 6 beyond the secondary school level.

7 "Student pursuing an undergraduate education" means any 8 individual under the age of 21 admitted to or applying for 9 admission to an institution of higher education, or enrolled on 10 a full or part time basis in a course or program of academic, 11 business, or vocational instruction offered by or through an 12 institution of higher education, where credits earned could be 13 applied toward the earning of a bachelor's or associate's 14 degree.

15 "Tangible personal property" means personal property that 16 can be seen, weighed, measured, or touched, or that is in any 17 other matter perceptible to the senses, including, but not 18 limited to, gift cards, t-shirts, and other giveaways.

19 Section 10. Financial education. Any institution of higher 20 education that enters into an agreement to market credit cards 21 to students pursuing an undergraduate education, or that allows 22 its student groups, alumni associations, or affiliates to enter 23 into such agreements must make a financial education program 24 available to all students. Additionally, an institution of 25 higher education shall make available to all its students, via 1 posting in a conspicuous location on its webpages, the 2 financial education information required by this Section. The 3 financial education program shall include, at a minimum:

4 (1) an explanation of the consequences of not paying 5 credit card balances in full within the time specified by 6 the billing statement, including an explanation of the 7 methods employed by credit card issuers to compute interest 8 on unpaid balances;

9 (2) an explanation of common industry practices that 10 have a negative impact to consumer credit card holders; 11 current examples include low introductory rates, a 12 description of acts on the part of cardholder that would 13 cause an immediate shift to a higher interest rate, and 14 complex timing calculations which can trigger higher 15 rates;

16 (3) examples illustrating the length of time it will 17 take to pay off various balance amounts if only the minimum 18 monthly payment required under the agreement is paid;

19 (4) an explanation of credit related terms, including 20 but not limited to fixed rates, variable rates, 21 introductory rates, balance transfers, grace periods, and 24 opt-out program to limit credit card solicitations, and how 25 students may participate in it; and 26 (6) an explanation of the impact of and potential

1 consequences that could result from using a debit card for 2 purchases that exceed the deposits in the account tied to 3 the debit card.

4 Section 15. Disclosure of agreements with credit card 5 issuers.

6 (a) Any institution of higher education, including its 7 agents, employees, or student or alumni organizations, or 8 affiliates that receives any funds or items of value from the 9 distribution of applications for credit cards to students 10 pursuing an undergraduate education, or whose student groups, 11 alumni associations or affiliates, or both, receive funds or 12 items of value from the distribution, must disclose the 13 following:

14 (1) the name of the credit card issuer that has entered

1 Education; and

3 promoting the credit card.

4 (c) To the extent that the institution of higher education 5 is a State or government entity receiving public funds and 6 otherwise subject to the Freedom of Information Act, all 7 agreements with credit card issuers shall be subject to 8 disclosure to any requester pursuant to the Freedom of 9 Information Act.

10 (d) This Section applies to all contracts or agreements 11 entered into after the effective date of this Act. Nothing in 12 this Section is intended to or shall impair the obligations, 13 terms, conditions, or value of contracts between credit card 14 issuers and institutions of higher education that were entered 15 into before the effective date of this Act.

16 Section 20. Gifts and inducements. No institution of higher 17 education shall knowingly allow on its campus credit card 18 marketing activity that involves the offer of gifts, coupons, 19 or other tangible personal property to students pursuing an 20 undergraduate education where the ultimate goal is to induce a 21 student to complete an application for a credit card. All 22 institutions of higher education shall prohibit their 23 students, student groups, alumni associations, or affiliates 24 from providing gifts, coupons, or other tangible personal 25 property to students pursuing an undergraduate education where

1 the ultimate goal is to induce a student to complete an 2 application for a credit card.

3 Section 25. Provision of student information prohibited.
4 Institutions of higher education, including their agents, 5 employees, student groups, alumni organizations, or any 6 affiliates may not provide to a business organization or 8 the following information about students pursuing an 9 undergraduate education: (i) name, (ii) address, (iii)

10 telephone number, (iv) social security number, (v) e-mail 11 address, or (vi) other personally identifying information.
12 This requirement is waived if the student pursuing an 13 undergraduate education is 21 years of age or older.

14 Section 30. Enforcement; violations. Whenever the Attorney 15 General has reason to believe that any institution of higher 16 education is knowingly using, has used, or is about to use any 17 method, act, or practice in violation of this Act, or knows or 18 should have reason to know that agents, employees, students, 19 student groups, alumni associations, or affiliates used or are 20 about to use any method, act, or practice in violation of this 21 Act, the Attorney General may bring an action in the name of 22 the State against any institution of higher education to 23 restrain and prevent any violation of this Act and seek 24 penalties in amounts up to $1000 per incident.

1 Section 35. Attorney General; investigations; issuance of 2 subpoenas.

3 (a) The Attorney General may conduct any investigation
4 deemed necessary regarding possible violations of this Act 5 including, but not limited to, the issuance of subpoenas to:

7 answer interrogatories in writing as to all information 8 relevant to the alleged violations;

10 knowledge or information directly related to the alleged 11 violations; and

15 a person to file a statement or report, or of a subpoena upon

17 (1) personally by delivery of a duly executed copy 18 thereof to the person to be served or, if the person is not 19 a natural person, in the manner provided in the Code of 20 Civil Procedure when a complaint is filed; or

21 (2) by mailing by certified mail a duly executed copy 22 thereof to the person to be served at his or her last known 23 abode or principal place of business within this State.

24 (c) If any person fails or refuses to file any statement or 25 report, or obey any subpoena issued by the Attorney General,

1 then the Attorney General may file a complaint in the circuit 2 court for the:

3 (1) granting of injunctive relief, restraining the 4 sale or advertisement of any merchandise by such persons, 5 or the conduct of any trade or commerce that is involved; 6 and

7 (2) granting of such other relief as may be required;
8 until the person files the statement or report, or obeys 9 the subpoena.

10 Section 97. Severability. The provisions of this Act are 11 severable under Section 1.31 of the Statute on Statutes.

12 Section 900. The Freedom of Information Act is amended by
