10 purpose of detection, deterrence, and prevention of fraud,
11 corruption, mismanagement, gross or aggravated misconduct, or 12 misconduct that may be criminal in nature in the Office of the 13 Secretary of State. The Inspector General shall serve a 5-year
14 term. If no successor is appointed and qualified upon the 15 expiration of the Inspector General's term, the Office of 16 Inspector General is deemed vacant and the powers and duties

1 under this Section may be exercised only by an appointed and 2 qualified interim Inspector General until a successor
3 Inspector General is appointed and qualified. If the General

7 the next regularly scheduled session day of the Senate.

8 (b) The Inspector General shall have the following
9 qualifications:

25 of the Chief Auditor for the Secretary of State's Office or any 26 other Inspector General that may be authorized by law. The

1 Inspector General must report directly to the Secretary of 2 State.

3 (d) In addition to the authority otherwise provided by this

5 Secretary of State, its employees, or their actions for fraud,
6 corruption, mismanagement, gross or aggravated misconduct, or
7 misconduct that may be criminal in nature, the Inspector
8 General is authorized:

3 Public Labor Relations Act to be the exclusive bargaining
4 representative of employees of the Secretary of State,
5 including, but not limited to, records of representation of 6 employees and the negotiation of collective bargaining
7 agreements. A subpoena may be issued under this paragraph 8 (4) only by the Inspector General and not by members of the 9 Inspector General's staff. A person duly subpoenaed for 10 testimony, documents, or other items who neglects or 11 refuses to testify or produce documents or other items
12 under the requirements of the subpoena shall be subject to 13 punishment as may be determined by a court of competent 14 jurisdiction, unless (i) the testimony, documents, or

5 this Section, the Secretary of State Inspector General shall 6 have jurisdiction to investigate complaints and allegations of 7 wrongdoing by any person or entity related to the Lobbyist
8 Registration Act. When investigating those complaints and 9 allegations, the Inspector General is authorized:

10 (1) To have access to all records, reports, audits,
11 reviews, documents, papers, recommendations, or other
12 materials available that relate to programs and operations 13 with respect to which the Inspector General has 14 responsibilities under this Section.

15 (2) To request any information or assistance that may 16 be necessary for carrying out the duties and 17 responsibilities provided by this Section from any local,
18 State, or federal governmental agency or unit thereof.

19 (3) To require by subpoena the appearance of witnesses
20 and the production of all information, documents, reports, 21 answers, records, accounts, papers, and other data and 22 documentary evidence necessary in the performance of the 23 functions assigned by this Section. A subpoena may be 24 issued under this paragraph (3) only by the Inspector
25 General and not by members of the Inspector General's 26 staff. A person duly subpoenaed for testimony, documents,

1 or other items who neglects or refuses to testify or 2 produce documents or other items under the requirements of 3 the subpoena shall be subject to punishment as may be 4 determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the 5 testimony, documents, or other items are covered by the

22 reckless disregard for the truth or the falsity of the facts
23 underlying the complaint may be subject to discipline as set 24 forth in the rules of the Department of Personnel of the 25 Secretary of State or the Inspector General may refer the 26 matter to a State's Attorney or the Attorney General.

1 The Inspector General may not, after receipt of a complaint
2 or information, disclose the identity of the source without the 3 consent of the source, unless the Inspector General determines 4 that disclosure of the identity is reasonable and necessary for 5 the furtherance of the investigation.

6 Any employee who has the authority to recommend or approve 7 any personnel action or to direct others to recommend or 8 approve any personnel action may not, with respect to that 9 authority, take or threaten to take any action against any 10 employee as a reprisal for making a complaint or disclosing
11 information to the Inspector General, unless the complaint was

21 contacts, personal interviews, or requests for written 22 responses. The rules must also clarify how the Office of the 4 investigation or inquiry and the right to be represented in the 5 investigation or inquiry by an attorney or a representative of 6 a labor organization that is the exclusive collective 7 bargaining representative of employees of the Secretary of 8 State. Any investigation or inquiry by the Inspector General or 9 any agent or representative of the Inspector General must be 10 conducted with an awareness of the provisions of a collective 11 bargaining agreement that applies to the employees of the 12 Secretary of State and with an awareness of the rights of the 13 employees as set forth in State and federal law and applicable

14 judicial decisions. Any recommendations for discipline or any 15 action taken against any employee by the Inspector General or 16 any representative or agent of the Inspector General must 17 comply with the provisions of the collective bargaining
18 agreement that applies to the employee.
