HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, Twenty million Americans are victims of crime each
3 year and each crime affects many more, including families, 4 friends, and communities; and

5 WHEREAS, Crime exacts an emotional, physical,
6 psychological, and financial toll on victims as they have lost
7 loved ones, life savings, physical and mental health, and often
8 their sense of security and has the potential to irrevocably 9 change the course of their lives forever; and

10 WHEREAS, More than 30 years of progress for crime victims
11 stands on the shoulders of dedicated advocates and brave
12 victims who overcame shame, isolation, and indifference to gain 13 a voice, rights, and respect; and

14 WHEREAS, We applaud the progress that our nation has made
15 in recognizing crime's impact on victims and celebrate 16 advocates and survivors who through their determination have 17 brought rights and resources for victims and have changed the 18 course of history; and

19 WHEREAS, Victim assistance programs across the country are 20 reaching more victims and criminal justice officials are 21 honoring victims' rights more consistently, public

1 understanding of victims' rights remains minimal, and our 2 nation's victim services system remains fragmented,
3 underfunded, and uncoordinated; and

4 WHEREAS, More work remains to be done to address the mental 5 health impact of crime, and to meet the needs of victims of 6 non-violent crime, victims of terrorism, and other underserved 7 victims; and

8 WHEREAS, History teaches us that, by working together, we 9 can help victims of crime reshape their destinies and ensure 10 that they receive the support they need, the respect they 11 deserve, and the rights they have earned; and

12 WHEREAS, National Crime Victims' Rights Week, April 22-28,
13 2012, provides an opportunity to reshape the future for victims 14 by honoring the past and reflecting on hard-won victories, and 15 to recommit to working together to insist on better treatment 16 for victims to help them overcome the harm caused by crime; and

17 WHEREAS, The Springfield FBI Citizens' Academy Alumni 18 Association, in partnership with Southwind Park and the 19 Springfield Park District, are joining forces with victim
20 service programs, criminal justice officials, and concerned
21 citizens throughout the State of Illinois and America to raise
22 awareness of victims' rights and observe National Crime

1 Victims' Rights Week; therefore, be it

2 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 3 NINETY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 4 we proclaim the week of April 22-28, 2012, as National Crime
5 Victims' Rights Week, reaffirm the commitment to respect and 6 enforce victims' rights, and address their needs during 7 National Crime Victims' Rights Week and throughout the year;
8 and be it further

9 RESOLVED, That we express our appreciation for those 10 victims and crime survivors who have turned personal tragedy 11 into a motivating force to improve our response to victims of 12 crime and build a more just community.
