

HR0172

LRB098 11411 MST 43344 r

1

HOUSE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois General Assembly wish to honor 4 south suburban mayors as they complete their time in office; Mayors Irene H. Brodie, Donald Peloquin, Lou Sherman, and Jack Swan have decided to retire after years of public service; and

6

7

WHEREAS, Irene Brodie launched her campaign for the mayorship of the Village of Robbins in 1989 and has held the position ever since; she is the current, longest-serving, female, African-American mayor in the nation; her reign as mayor saw improvements in the water and sewer systems, roads and transportation, code enforcement, economic development, grant procurement, land acquisition, residential development, and public safety; her 36-year tenure in government consists of 12 years as municipal clerk for the Village of Robbins and 24 years as the mayor; she is a longtime educator and administrator; her scholarship program has funded the tuition costs for hundreds of students throughout the years and her individual efforts have produced teachers, lawyers, doctors, engineers, and educators around the globe; she has hired, financially supported, tutored, counseled, and graduated hundreds of residents from Robbins and the surrounding communities; and

23

1           WHEREAS, Irene Brodie was the vice-president of the 2 Illinois Municipal League, executive board member and 3 assistant secretary of the National Conference of Black Mayors,
4 and the chair of the Education Committee and Scholarship
5 Committee for the National Conference of Black Mayors; she has 6 been appointed to numerous gubernatorial transition teams and 7 has been on various State and federal advisory boards; she was 8 a member of the Metropolitan Mayors Caucus under Mayor Richard 9 Daley, served on President Clinton's environmental think-tank
10 group, and was a guest lecturer at the Harvard University
11 Graduate School of Business; she is married to J. Edmon Brodie
12 and they have one child, Jeraye E. Brodie; and

13           WHEREAS, Donald Peloquin is a lifelong resident of Blue 14 Island and has been mayor since 1985; he was alderman of the 15 4th Ward from 1981-1985; he is a member of various 16 organizations including the Southwest Conference of Mayors, 17 the South Suburban Mayors and Managers Association, and the 18 Metropolitan Mayors Caucus; he is chairman of the CREATE 19 Committee of the Metropolitan Planning Council; and

20           WHEREAS, Lou Sherman has been the Steger Village President 21 since 1973; during his years as mayor, he served as president
22 of the South Suburban Mayors and Managers Association and as 23 head of the organization's transportation committee; he was a
24 member of the Chicago Area Transportation Study; he has held

1 volunteer positions at the county and State level, being 2 appointed to the Cook County Community Block Grant advisory 3 board in 1977 and as vice-president of the Illinois Municipal 4 League in 1994; he moved to Steger in 1958 and became a member
5 of the Steger Kiwanis Club and head of its boy's baseball
6 league; he and his wife, Andrea, are members of St. Liborius
7 Church; he is a former Kiwanis Lt. Governor and a life member 8 of the organization as well as three-time president of the 9 local Kiwanis; he is a member of the Steger DARE committee, the 10 Chamber of Commerce, and the American Legion; and

11 WHEREAS, Jack Swan has been the Thornton Village President
12 for the past 20 years; during his 5 terms as village president, 13 he has established a full-time paramedic program, expanded the 14 police and public works departments, and created a full-time
15 recreation department; he has overseen numerous large economic 16 development projects within the community and has helped keep 17 Thornton's tax rates stable; during and after his office hours 18 he always made himself available to residents to listen to 19 their ideas and concerns; he spearheaded the free senior 20 citizen driveway and sidewalk plowing program and at times,
21 personally plowed the school-route sidewalks for Wolcott
22 students; he has lived in Thornton for 45 years and has been 23 married to Peggy for 46 and they have 3 children, Jim, Penny, 24 and Jackie; and

1           WHEREAS, Mayors Sherman, Brodie, Peloquin, and Swan will be
2 honored at the South Suburban Mayors and Managers Association
3 dinner on March 21, 2013; therefore, be it

4           RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 5 NINETY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 6 we honor and thank these 4 individuals for the service they 7 have given to their communities over these past many years and 8 wish them well in all their future endeavours; and be it
9 further

10           RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 11 presented to Mayors Irene Brodie, Donald Peloquin, Lou Sherman,
12 and Jack Swan as an expression of our esteem and respect.