HOUSE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, Under the misnomer of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the current North Korean government is a continuation of the absolute dynastic dictatorship started by Kim Il-sung in 1948; following his death in 1994, Kim Il-sung was succeeded by his eldest son, Kim Jong-il; on December 17, 2011, Kim Jong-il died and his youngest son, Kim Jong-un, was immediately installed as his successor; the majority of the North Korean people have experienced unimaginable suffering during the regimes of all 3 dictators; and

9

11

WHEREAS, The North Korean government's top priority is total control of all aspects of life in North Korea; all information, artistic expression, academic works, and media activity within its borders is strictly limited, as is freedom of speech; and

12

14

15

16

WHEREAS, The North Korean government has executed political prisoners, other outspoken opponents of the regime, and certain "repatriated" defectors, as well as members of outlawed religions and organizations; and

17

19

20

WHEREAS, The North Korean government currently holds almost a quarter of a million political prisoners in camps under deplorable conditions; and

21

1 WHEREAS, In the early 1990s, more than 2 million
2 inhabitants of North Korea died of starvation due to the 3 failure of the North Korean government-operated centralized
4 agricultural and distribution systems; a 2002 United 5 Nations-European Union survey indicated that one out of every 6 10 North Korean children are acutely malnourished and 4 out of 7 10 are chronically malnourished; and

8 WHEREAS, The North Korean government continues to prevent 9 the monitoring of the delivery of food aid provided by the 10 World Food Program since 1995; and

11 WHEREAS, The resultant risk of starvation, threat of 12 persecution, and lack of personal freedoms have caused hundreds 13 of thousands of North Koreans to flee, primarily into China,
14 where the women are often at risk of being kidnapped and sold 15 as brides, concubines, or forced into prostitution; and

16 WHEREAS, The Chinese government has consistently detained,
17 convicted, and imprisoned foreign aid workers who, in accord
18 with United Nations conventions and protocol, assist these 19 North Korean aliens; and

20 WHEREAS, While the responsibility for domestic refugee 21 resettlement naturally devolves to the South Koreans, the

1 United States should play a leadership role in addressing the 2 plight of these refugees and develop international solutions
3 for this humanitarian crisis; therefore, be it

4 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 5 NINETY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 6 we express our solidarity with the North Korean refugees in 7 their quest for relief from hunger and persecution; and be it
8 further

9 RESOLVED, That we articulate our support for development of 10 a Human Rights and Democracy program that includes meaningful
11 cultural and educational exchanges with North Korea; and be it
12 further

13 RESOLVED, That we call upon the United States government to 14 take a leadership role in forming an international framework
15 for resettlement of North Korean refugees both here and abroad;
16 and be it further

17 RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be 18 presented to President Barack Obama, Secretary of State John 19 Kerry, the members of the Illinois congressional delegation,
20 and the Illinois Human Rights Commission.
