

98TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

State of Illinois

2013 and 2014

SB1500

Introduced 2/7/2013, by Sen. Bill Cunningham

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

735 ILCS 5/2-301

from Ch. 110, par. 2-301

Amends the Civil Practice Law of the Code of Civil Procedure. Provides that the deadline for filing a motion to dismiss the entire proceeding or to quash service of process on the basis of an objection to the court's jurisdiction over the person, unless extended by the court for good cause shown, is 60 days after the earlier of: (i) the date that the moving party filed an appearance; or (ii) the date that the moving party participated in a hearing without filing an appearance.

1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Code of Civil Procedure is amended by 5 changing Section 2-301 as follows:

6 (735 ILCS 5/2-301) (from Ch. 110, par. 2-301)

7 Sec. 2-301. Objections to jurisdiction over the person.

8 (a) Prior to the filing of any other pleading or motion 9 other than a motion for an extension of time to answer or 10 otherwise appear, a party may object to the court's 11 jurisdiction over the party's person, either on the ground that 12 the party is not amenable to process of a court of this State
13 or on the ground of insufficiency of process or insufficiency 14 of service of process, by filing a motion to dismiss the entire 15 proceeding or any cause of action involved in the proceeding or 16 by filing a motion to quash service of process. Such a motion
17 may be made singly or included with others in a combined
18 motion, but the parts of a combined motion must be identified
19 in the manner described in Section 2-619.1. Unless the facts
20 that constitute the basis for the objection are apparent from 21 papers already on file in the case, the motion must be 22 supported by an affidavit setting forth those facts.

23 (a-5) The deadline for filing a motion to dismiss the

1 entire proceeding or to quash service of process on the basis
2 of an objection to the court's jurisdiction over the person,
3 unless extended by the court for good cause shown, is 60 days
4 after the earlier of: (i) the date that the moving party filed
5 an appearance; or (ii) the date that the moving party
6 participated in a hearing without filing an appearance. If the 7 objecting party files a responsive pleading or a motion (other 8 than a motion for an extension of time to answer or otherwise 9 appear) prior to the filing of a motion in compliance with 10 subsection (a), that party waives all objections to the court's 11 jurisdiction over the party's person.

12 (b) In disposing of a motion objecting to the court's 13 jurisdiction over the person of the objecting party, the court 14 shall consider all matters apparent from the papers on file in 15 the case, affidavits submitted by any party, and any evidence 16 adduced upon contested issues of fact. The court shall enter an 17 appropriate order sustaining or overruling the objection. No 18 determination of any issue of fact in connection with the 19 objection is a determination of the merits of the case or any 20 aspect thereof. A decision adverse to the objector does not 21 preclude the objector from making any motion or defense which 22 he or she might otherwise have made.

23 (c) Error in ruling against the objecting party on the 24 objection is waived by the party's taking part in further 25 proceedings unless the objection is on the ground that the 26 party is not amenable to process issued by a court of this

1 State.
