1 mining plant on the surface or underground, that contribute 2 directly or indirectly to the mining and handling of minerals.

Provided, that when a group of workings in proximity to one another and under one management are administered as distinct units each working shall be considered a separate mine.

- (e) The term "mineral" when used in this Act shall mean whatever is recognized by the standard authorities as mineral, whether metalliferous or non-metalliferous, but shall not be held to embrace or include silica, granite, marble, salt, sand, gravel, clay, rock, coal, lignite, gas, oil or any substance extracted in solution or in the molten state through bore holes.
- (f) The term "operator" when used in this Act shall mean the person, firm, or body corporate, in immediate possession of any mine and its accessories as owner or lessee thereof, and as such responsible for the condition and management thereof.
- (g) The term "superintendent" when used in this Act shall mean the person having the immediate supervision of the mine.
- (h) The term "mine foreman" when used in this Act shall mean the person who at any one time is charged with the general direction of the underground work.
- 22 (i) The term "inspector" when used in this Act shall 23 signify the official State Inspector.
- 24 (j) The words "excavation" and "workings" when used in this 25 Act shall signify any and all parts of a mine excavated or 26 being excavated, including shafts, raises, tunnels, adits, open-cuts, and all working places, whether abandoned or in use.

- (k) Whenever the expression "number of men" or "average number of men" employed in a mine are used in this Act as defining or constituting classes of mines to which this Act or any specific section, clauses, provision or rule thereof, does or does not apply, such expressions shall be construed to mean the average number of individuals employed during the previous year as shown by the returns to the mine inspector or by the books or pay roll of the mine, or by all of such means and such average number shall be determined by dividing the total number of man shifts by the number of days the mine worked during such period.
- (1) The term "explosive" or "explosives" as used in this Act shall be held to mean and to include any chemical or any mechanical mixture that contains any oxidizing and combustible units or other ingredients in such proportions, quantities, or packing that an ignition by fire, by friction, by concussion, by percussion or by detonation of any part of the compound or mixture may cause such a sudden generation of highly heated gases that the resultant gaseous pressures are capable of producing destructive effect on contiguous objects or of destroying life or limb.
- (m) The term "person" when used in this Act shall be held to mean and include a firm or body corporate as well as natural persons.
- (n) The term "underground" as used in this Act shall be

- 1 held to mean "within the limits of" any mine working or
- 2 excavation and shall not exclude such workings or excavations
- 3 as may not be covered over by rock or earth.
- 4 (o) The term "employees" and "men employed" shall be held
- 5 to mean all individuals receiving compensation from the
- 6 operator, directly or indirectly, for labor or services
- 7 performed in connection with the mine and shall include
- 8 contractors, lessors, lessees, tributers, or any one similarly
- 9 employed.
- 10 (Source: P.A. 88-185.)
- 11 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon
- 12 becoming law.
