

98TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

State of Illinois

2013 and 2014

SB2699

Introduced 1/28/2014, by Sen. William Delgado

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

105 ILCS 302/30 new

Amends the College and Career Success for All Students Act. Provides that a student who takes a College Board Advanced Placement examination and receives a score of 3 or higher on the examination is entitled to receive postsecondary level course credit at a public institution of higher education. Requires each public institution of higher education to comply with the same standard of awarding course credit to any student receiving a score of 3 or higher on a College Board Advanced Placement examination and applying the credit to meet a corresponding course requirement for degree completion at that institution of higher education. Effective immediately.
