

SR1683

LRB098 23349 MST 62462 r

1

SENATE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, On December 23, 2000, Lt. Scott Gillen of the Chicago Fire Department was struck and killed on the Dan Ryan Expressway when a motorist recklessly drove through an accident scene in which Lt. Gillen was assisting; and

3

4

5

6

WHEREAS, In 2002, the State of Illinois enacted Scott's Law in honor of Lt. Gillen, which mandates that upon approaching a stationary authorized emergency vehicle displaying warning lights, the approaching vehicle shall reduce the speed of the vehicle, yield the right-of-way by changing lanes away from the authorized emergency vehicle, and proceed with due regard to safety and traffic conditions; and

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

WHEREAS, In recent years, the Illinois State Police have lost Troopers Kyle Deatherage and James Sauter in the line of duty and Troopers Doug Balder and Michael Cokins have been seriously injured in accidents; and 14

15

16

17

WHEREAS, The Pontiac Police Department lost Officer Casey J. Kohlmeier and his K-9 partner, Draco, in the line of duty; and 18

19

20

WHEREAS, The Bloomington and Hudson Fire Departments lost Firefighter Christopher Brown in the line of duty; and

21

1 WHEREAS, The Illinois Tollway lost Vincent Petrella in the
2 line of duty; and

3 WHEREAS, These individuals represent only some of the first
4 responders that continue to lose their lives while assisting
5 others along Illinois roadways; therefore, be it

6 RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH GENERAL
7 ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we encourage motorists
8 who see flashing emergency vehicle lights to remember Scott's
9 Law and to move their vehicles over to give those first
10 responders an adequate area in which to do their jobs; and be 11 it further

12 RESOLVED, That we designate December 23, 2014 as "Scott's
13 Law Day" in the State of Illinois.