4 (730 ILCS 130/3.1) (from Ch. 75, par. 32.1)

5 Sec. 3.1. (a) Within 3 months after the effective date of 6 this amendatory Act of 1986, the wardens who supervise
7 institutions under this Act shall meet and agree upon uniform
8 rules and regulations for behavior and conduct, penalties, and 9 the awarding, denying and revocation of good behavior
10 allowance, in such institutions; and such rules and regulations
11 shall be immediately promulgated and consistent with the 12 provisions of this Act. Interim rules shall be provided by each 13 warden consistent with the provision of this Act and shall be 14 effective until the promulgation of uniform rules. All 15 disciplinary action shall be consistent with the provisions of 16 this Act. Committed persons shall be informed of rules of 17 behavior and conduct, the penalties for violation thereof, and 18 the disciplinary procedure by which such penalties may be 19 imposed. Any rules, penalties and procedures shall be posted
20 and made available to the committed persons.

21 (b) Whenever a person is alleged to have violated a rule of 22 behavior, a written report of the infraction shall be filed 23 with the warden within 72 hours of the occurrence of the 24 infraction or the discovery of it, and such report shall be 25 placed in the file of the institution or facility. No

1 disciplinary proceeding shall be commenced more than 8 days
2 after the infraction or the discovery of it, unless the 3 committed person is unable or unavailable for any reason to 4 participate in the disciplinary proceeding.

5 (c) All or any of the good behavior allowance earned may be 6 revoked by the warden, unless he initiates the charge, and in 7 that case by the disciplinary board, for violations of rules of 8 behavior at any time prior to discharge from the institution,
9 consistent with the provisions of this Act.

10 (d) In disciplinary cases that may involve the loss of good
11 behavior allowance or eligibility to earn good behavior
12 allowance, the warden shall establish disciplinary procedures
13 consistent with the following principles:

14 (1) The warden may establish one or more disciplinary 15 boards, made up of one or more persons, to hear and 16 determine charges. Any person who initiates a disciplinary 17 charge against a committed person shall not serve on the 18 disciplinary board that will determine the disposition of 19 the charge. In those cases in which the charge was 20 initiated by the warden, he shall establish a disciplinary 21 board which will have the authority to impose any 22 appropriate discipline.

23 (2) Any committed person charged with a violation of 24 rules of behavior shall be given notice of the charge, 25 including a statement of the misconduct alleged and of the 26 rules this conduct is alleged to violate, no less than 24

1 hours before the disciplinary hearing.

2 (3) Any committed person charged with a violation of 3 rules is entitled to a hearing on that charge, at which 4 time he shall have an opportunity to appear before and 5 address the warden or disciplinary board deciding the 6 charge.

7 (4) The person or persons determining the disposition
8 of the charge may also summon to testify any witnesses or 9 other persons with relevant knowledge of the incident. The 10 person charged may be permitted to question any person so
11 summoned.

12 (5) If the charge is sustained, the person charged is 13 entitled to a written statement, within 14 days after the 14 hearing, of the decision by the warden or the disciplinary 15 board which determined the disposition of the charge, and 16 the statement shall include the basis for the decision and 17 the disciplinary action, if any, to be imposed.

18 (6) The warden may impose the discipline recommended by 19 the disciplinary board, or may reduce the discipline
20 recommended; however, no committed person may be penalized
21 more than 30 days of good behavior allowance for any one 22 infraction unless the infraction is the second or 23 subsequent infraction within any 30-day period in which 24 case the committed person may not be penalized more than 60
25 days of good behavior allowance.

26 (7) The warden, in appropriate cases, may restore good

1 behavior allowance that has been revoked, suspended or 2 reduced.

3 (e) The warden, or his or her designee, may revoke the good
4 behavior allowance specified in Section 3 of this Act of an 5 inmate who is sentenced to the Illinois Department of 6 Corrections for misconduct committed by the inmate while in 7 custody of the warden. If an inmate while in custody of the 8 warden is convicted of assault or battery on a peace officer,
9 correctional employee, or another inmate, or for criminal 10 damage to property or for bringing into or possessing 11 contraband in the penal institution in violation of Section 12 31A-1.1 of the Criminal Code of 1961 or the Criminal Code of 13 2012, his or her day for day good behavior allowance shall be 14 revoked for each day such allowance was earned while the inmate
15 was in custody of the warden.
