- 10 (1) Every day parents make important decisions about 11 their child's participation in extracurricular activities.
 12 Caregivers for children in out-of-home care are faced with 13 making the same decisions.
 - (2) When a caregiver makes decisions, he or she must consider applicable laws, rules, and regulations to safeguard the health, safety, and best interests of a child in out-of-home care.
 - (3) Participation in extracurricular activities is important to a child's well-being, not only emotionally, but also in developing valuable life skills.
- 21 (4) The General Assembly recognizes the importance of 22 making every effort to normalize the lives of children in 23 out-of-home care and to empower a caregiver to approve or

- (5) Nothing in this Section shall be presumed to discourage or diminish the engagement of families and quardians in the child's life activities.
- (b) Definitions. As used in this Section:

"Appropriate activities" means activities or items that are generally accepted as suitable for children of the same chronological age or developmental level of maturity. Appropriateness is based on the development of cognitive, emotional, physical, and behavioral capacity that is typical for an age or age group, taking into account the individual child's cognitive, emotional, physical, and behavioral development.

"Caregiver" means a person with whom the child is placed in out-of-home care or a designated official for child care facilities licensed by the Department as defined in the Child Care Act of 1969.

"Reasonable and prudent parent standard" means the standard characterized by careful and sensible parental decisions that maintain the child's health, safety, and best interests while at the same time supporting the child's emotional and developmental growth that a caregiver shall use

1	when determining whether to allow a child in out-of-home care
2	to participate in extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, and
3	social activities.
4	(c) Requirements for decision-making.
5	(1) Each child who comes into the care and custody of
6	the Department is fully entitled to participate in
7	appropriate extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, and
8	social activities in a manner that allows that child to
9	participate in his or her community to the fullest extent
10	possible.
11	(2) Caregivers must use the reasonable and prudent
12	parent standard in determining whether to give permission
13	for a child in out-of-home care to participate in
14	appropriate extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, and
15	social activities. Caregivers are expected to promote and
16	support a child's participation in such activities. When
17	using the reasonable and prudent parent standard, the
18	<pre>caregiver shall consider:</pre>
19	(A) the child's age, maturity, and developmental
20	level to promote the overall health, safety, and best
21	interests of the child;
22	(B) the best interest of the child based or
23	information known by the caregiver;
24	(C) the importance and fundamental value of
25	encouraging the child's emotional and developmental growth gained through participation in activities in

1	his or her community;
2	(D) the importance and fundamental value of
3	providing the child with the most family-like living
4	experience possible; and
5	(E) the behavioral history of the child and the
6	child's ability to safely participate in the proposed
7	activity.
8	(3) A caregiver is not liable for harm caused to a
9	child in out-of-home care who participates in an activity
10	approved by the caregiver, provided that the caregiver has
11	acted as a reasonable and prudent parent in permitting the
12	child to engage in the activity.
13	(d) Rulemaking. The Department shall adopt, by rule,
14	procedures no later than June 1, 2017 that promote and protect
15	the ability of children to participate in appropriate
16	extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, and social activities.
17	Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon
18	becoming law.
