1 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 124

2 WHEREAS, In 2013, the Supreme Court of the United States,
3 in Shelby County v. Holder, held that states can no longer be 4 judged by voter discrimination that went on decades ago; and

11 WHEREAS, The U.S. Supreme Court directed Congress to 12 identify jurisdictions that should be singled out now for voter 13 discrimination, as opposed to discrimination 40 years ago, as 14 long as the formula does not include black voter registration 15 and turnout from decades ago; and

16 WHEREAS, If Congress does not re-authorize the formula in 17 Section 4(b), the Voting Rights Act loses much of its original
18 purpose to prevent discrimination in voting; without a formula
19 in Section 4, Section 5 preclearance goes unused in states with 20 a history of discrimination; therefore, be it
