C. With respect to any benefit year beginning on or after December 1, 2016 and prior to the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 99th General Assembly, any otherwise eligible individual whose total or partial unemployment is attributable to a layoff by his or her employer who is a manufacturer of steel shall be entitled, during such benefit year, to a maximum total amount of benefits equal to 52 times his or her weekly benefit amount plus dependents' allowances, or to the total wages for insured work paid to such individual during the individual's base period, whichever amount is smaller. If, prior to the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 99th General Assembly, such individual has received the maximum total amount of benefits to which he or she was entitled under this Act for the benefit year, the individual shall be entitled to extended benefits equal to the maximum total amount of benefits established under this subsection C minus the benefits received prior to the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 99th General Assembly.

The benefit year for any person entitled to benefits under this subsection C shall be extended by an additional 12 months to accommodate the additional benefits provided under this subsection C.

The provisions of Section 607 and the waiting period requirements of Section 500D shall not be applicable to any

- 1 week with respect to which benefits are otherwise payable under
- 2 this subsection C.
