1 WHEREAS, Dr. Dohner attracted national attention beginning 2 in the early 1970s due to his $2.00 office visit fee, which at 3 that time was being revised to $3.00; the fee was later raised 4 to $5.00 per office visit, which remained his office fee until 5 his practice concluded in 2013; he regularly did house calls
6 and since no appointments were taken at his office, names went 7 on a list and he would see patients in sequential order until 8 everyone had been seen; if a patient was feeling really sick, 9 they came through the back door for quicker attention; he would 10 also see patients who came to his home; he delivered over 3,500
11 babies in Rushville and encouraged many young people to enter 12 the medical field; and

13 WHEREAS, Dr. Dohner was a regular church attendee at First 14 United Methodist Church in Rushville; he was a member of the 15 Rushville Rotary Club, where he earned his 37-year perfect
16 attendance pin and was a Paul Harris Fellow; he was also a 17 member of the Masons; he enjoyed singing both at church and at 18 the Rotary Club, growing flowers and trees, and fishing; for 19 years, his Rushville home and his cabin located outside of 20 Rushville were the hub of social events for family and friends; 21 and

22 WHEREAS, Dr. Dohner received a number of awards and 23 recognitions over the years, including the Western Illinois
24 University Alumni Achievement Award in 1982, the Western

1 Illinois University Distinguished Alumni Award in 1990, the 2 Illinois Public Health Association Distinguished Service Award
3 in 1998, the Illinois Pfizer Quality of Care Award in 2002, the 4 Illinois "Doc Hollywood Award" in 2005, the Western Illinois
5 University Honorary Doctorate Award in 2006, and the 7 was the recipient of the Illinois Department on Aging's Hall of 8 Fame award presented at the Governor's Mansion in Springfield 9 in 2013; he was second runner-up in the "Country Doctor of the 10 Year" national award in 2004; and

11 WHEREAS, In 2004, Rushville celebrated "Dr. Dohner Day", 12 honoring his 50 years of service to community; in 2013, he 13 served as grand marshal of the Illinois State Fair Parade in 14 Springfield and was honored by Rushville with a ceremony and a
15 bronze statue with his likeness, located in the Rushville
16 Central Park Square; he was the subject of the United States 17 Congressional Record, Volume 159, Issue 180, titled "Tribute to 18 Dr. Russell Dohner" by Senator Dick Durbin (2013); he was 19 included in Bob Dotson's book, American Story: A Lifetime
20 Search for Ordinary People Doing Extraordinary Things
21 (published in 2013); he appeared on NBC's "Today Show", on CNN, 22 and was featured twice in People Magazine; and

23 WHEREAS, Dr. Dohner was a man of humility; he would say 24 that what he valued most was providing service to others, and

1 that his most cherished "prizes" were the homegrown, canned,
2 baked, and crafted items - including cards, letters, and 3 children's crayoned notes - which were shared with him over the 4 years by patients; and

5 WHEREAS, Dr. Dohner was preceded in death by his parents;
6 his brother, Robert Dohner; his 3 sisters, Clarice Dohner,
7 Norma Dohner, and Beula Garrabrant; his 3 brothers-in-law,
8 Wendell Copes, Bob Garrabrant, and Lester Goodwin; his 9 sister-in-law, Beulah Gibble Dohner; and his nephew, Michael 10 Garrabrant; and

11 WHEREAS, Dr. Dohner is survived by his 2 sisters, Doris 12 (Ronald) Cook and Lydia Goodwin; his 10 nieces and nephews,
