AN ACT in relation to estates.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Probate Act of 1975 is amended by
5 changing Section 20-7 as follows:

6 (755 ILCS 5/20-7) (from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 20-7)

7 Sec. 20-7. Place and terms of sale.

8 (a) The court may designate the place and manner of holding the sale, whether private or public, and whether for 9 cash or on reasonable credit. The sale may be conducted by 10 means of the Internet or any other electronic medium as 11 12 approved by the court. When mining, oil or gas rights only 13 are sold, the court may require security of the purchaser and may direct the sale to be made upon a royalty basis or for a 14 15 lump sum in such manner and upon such terms as appears to the 16 court to be to the best interests of the estate.

(b) Every public sale under this Article, except a sale 17 conducted by means of the Internet or another electronic 18 medium, shall be held between the hours of 10:00 o'clock in 19 20 the forenoon and 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day. Notice of the time, place and terms of holding the 21 22 sale, containing a description of the property sought to be sold, must be published once each week for 3 successive 23 weeks, the first publication to be not less than 25 days 24 prior to the sale, in some newspaper published in the county 25 26 where the property sought to be sold, or the greater part 27 thereof, lies.

A sale conducted by means of the Internet or another electronic medium shall be conducted according to terms and notice given by means of the Internet or other electronic medium. 1 (Source: P.A. 79-328.)
