AN ACT concerning taxes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The Property Tax Code is amended by changing
Section 15-175 as follows:

6 (35 ILCS 200/15-175)

Sec. 15-175. General homestead exemption. Homestead 7 8 property is entitled to an annual homestead exemption limited, except as described in this Section here with 9 relation to cooperatives, to a reduction in the equalized 10 assessed value of homestead property equal to the increase in 11 equalized assessed value for the current assessment year 12 13 above the equalized assessed value of the property for 1977, up to the maximum reduction set forth below. If however, the 14 1977 equalized assessed value upon which taxes were paid is 15 16 subsequently determined by local assessing officials, the Property Tax Appeal Board, or a court to have been excessive, 17 18 the equalized assessed value which should have been placed on the property for 1977 shall be used to determine the amount 19 20 of the exemption.

The maximum reduction shall be $4,500 in counties with 3,000,000 or more inhabitants and $3,500 in all other counties.

In counties with fewer than 3,000,000 inhabitants, 24 if, 25 based on the most recent assessment, the equalized assessed value of the homestead property for the current assessment 26 27 year is greater than the equalized assessed value of the property for 1977, the owner of the property shall 28 29 automatically receive the exemption granted under this Section in an amount equal to the increase over the 1977 30 assessment up to the maximum reduction set forth in this 31

1 Section.

2 If in any assessment year beginning with the 2000 assessment year, homestead property has a pro-rata valuation 3 4 under Section 9-180 resulting in an increase in the assessed 5 valuation, a reduction in equalized assessed valuation equal 6 to the increase in equalized assessed value of the property 7 for the year of the pro-rata valuation above the equalized assessed value of the property for 1977 shall be applied to 8 9 the property on a proportionate basis for the period the 10 property qualified as homestead property during the 11 assessment year. The maximum proportionate homestead exemption shall not exceed the maximum homestead exemption 12 allowed in the county under this Section divided by 365 and 13 multiplied by the number of days the property qualified as 14 15 homestead property.

16 "Homestead property" under this Section includes residential property that is occupied by its owner or owners 17 18 as his or their principal dwelling place, or that is a 19 leasehold interest on which a single family residence is situated, which is occupied as a residence by a person who 20 21 has an ownership interest therein, legal or equitable or as a lessee, and on which the person is liable for the payment of 22 23 property taxes. For land improved with an apartment building owned and operated as a cooperative or a building which is a 24 25 life care facility as defined in Section 15-170 and considered to be a cooperative under Section 15-170, the 26 maximum reduction from the equalized assessed value shall be 27 limited to the increase in the value above the equalized 28 assessed value of the property for 1977, up to the maximum 29 30 reduction set forth above, multiplied by the number of apartments or units occupied by a person or persons who is 31 32 liable, by contract with the owner or owners of record, for paying property taxes on the property and is an owner of 33 34 record of a legal or equitable interest in the cooperative

1 apartment building, other than a leasehold interest. For 2 purposes of this Section, the term "life care facility" has 3 the meaning stated in Section 15-170.

In a cooperative where a homestead exemption has been granted, the cooperative association or its management firm shall credit the savings resulting from that exemption only to the apportioned tax liability of the owner who qualified for the exemption. Any person who willfully refuses to so credit the savings shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

10 Where married persons maintain and reside in separate 11 residences qualifying as homestead property, each residence 12 shall receive 50% of the total reduction in equalized 13 assessed valuation provided by this Section.

In counties with more than 3,000,000 inhabitants, the 14 15 assessor or chief county assessment officer may determine the 16 eligibility of residential property to receive the homestead exemption by application, visual inspection, questionnaire or 17 18 other reasonable methods. The determination shall be made in 19 accordance with guidelines established by the Department. In counties with fewer than 3,000,000 inhabitants, in the event 20 21 of a sale of homestead property the homestead exemption shall 22 remain in effect for the remainder of the assessment year of 23 the sale. The assessor or chief county assessment officer may require the new owner of the property to apply for 24 the 25 homestead exemption for the following assessment year.
