- 1 AN ACT concerning juveniles.
- 2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
- 3 represented in the General Assembly:
- 4 Section 5. The Juvenile Court Act of 1987 is amended by
- 5 changing Section 5-501 as follows:
- 6 (705 ILCS 405/5-501)
- 7 Sec. 5-501. Detention or shelter care hearing. At the
- 8 appearance of the minor before the court at the detention or
- 9 shelter care hearing, the court shall receive all relevant
- 10 information and evidence, including affidavits concerning the
- 11 allegations made in the petition. Evidence used by the court
- 12 in its findings or stated in or offered in connection with
- 13 this Section may be by way of proffer based on reliable
- 14 information offered by the State or minor. All evidence
- shall be admissible if it is relevant and reliable regardless
- of whether it would be admissible under the rules of evidence
- 17 applicable at a trial. No hearing may be held unless the
- 18 minor is represented by counsel.
- 19 (1) If the court finds that there is not probable cause
- 20 to believe that the minor is a delinquent minor it shall
- 21 release the minor and dismiss the petition.
- 22 (2) If the court finds that there is probable cause to
- 23 believe that the minor is a delinquent minor, the minor, his
- or her parent, guardian, custodian and other persons able to
- 25 give relevant testimony may be examined before the court.
- 26 The court may also consider any evidence by way of proffer
- 27 based upon reliable information offered by the State or the
- 28 minor. All evidence, including affidavits, shall be
- 29 admissible if it is relevant and reliable regardless of
- 30 whether it would be admissible under the rules of evidence
- 31 applicable at trial. After such evidence is presented, the court may enter an order that the minor shall be released upon the request of a parent, guardian or legal custodian if the parent, guardian or custodian appears to take custody.

4 the court finds that it is a matter of immediate and 5 urgent necessity for the protection of the minor or of б person or property of another that the minor be detained or 7 placed in a shelter care facility or that he or she is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court, 8 the court 9 prescribe detention or shelter care and order that the minor be kept in a suitable place designated by the court or in a 10 11 shelter care facility designated by the Department Children and Family Services or a licensed child welfare 12 agency; otherwise the court it shall release the minor from 13 custody. If the court prescribes shelter care, then in 14 15 placing the minor, the Department or other agency shall, 16 the extent compatible with the court's order, comply with Section 7 of the Children and Family Services Act. In making 17 18 the determination of the existence of immediate and urgent 19 necessity, the court shall consider among other matters: (a) the nature and seriousness of the alleged offense; (b) the 20 21 minor's record of delinquency offenses, including whether the 22 minor has delinquency cases pending; (c) the minor's record 23 of willful failure to appear following the issuance of summons or warrant; (d) the availability of non-custodial 24 25 alternatives, including the presence of a parent, guardian or other responsible relative able and willing to provide 26 supervision and care for the minor and to assure his or 27 compliance with a summons. If the minor is ordered placed in 28 a shelter care facility of a licensed child welfare agency, 29 30 the court shall, upon request of the agency, appoint the appropriate agency executive temporary custodian of the minor 31 32 and the court may enter such other orders related to the temporary custody of the minor as it deems fit and proper. 33

34 The order together with the court's findings of fact in

1 support of the order shall be entered of record in the court.

Once the court finds that it is a matter of immediate and

3 urgent necessity for the protection of the minor that the minor be placed in a shelter care facility, the minor shall not be returned to the parent, custodian or guardian until the court finds that the placement is no longer necessary for 7 the protection of the minor.

paragraph (4):

construed to limit subsection (4).

- (3) Only when there is reasonable cause to believe that the minor taken into custody is a delinquent minor may the minor be kept or detained in a facility authorized for juvenile detention. This Section shall in no way be
- 13 (4) Minors 12 years of age or older must be kept 14 separate from confined adults and may not at any time be kept 15 in the same cell, room or yard with confined adults. This
 - (a) shall only apply to confinement pending an adjudicatory hearing and shall not exceed 40 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and court designated holidays. To accept or hold minors during this time period, county jails shall comply with all monitoring standards for juvenile detention homes promulgated by the Department of Corrections and training standards approved by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training Standards Board.
 - (b) To accept or hold minors, 12 years of age or older, after the time period prescribed in clause (a) of subsection (4) of this Section but not exceeding 7 days including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, pending an adjudicatory hearing, county jails shall comply with all temporary detention standards promulgated by the Department of Corrections and training standards approved by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training Standards Board.
 - (c) To accept or hold minors 12 years of age or older, after the time period prescribed in clause (a) and

- 1 (b), of this subsection county jails shall comply with 2 all programmatic and training standards for juvenile detention homes promulgated by the Department 3 4 Corrections.
 - If the minor is not brought before a judicial officer within the time period as specified in Section the minor must immediately be released from custody.
- If neither the parent, guardian or legal custodian appears within 24 hours to take custody of a minor released from detention or shelter care, then the clerk of the court 10 11 shall set the matter for rehearing not later than 7 days after the original order and shall issue a summons directed 12 to the parent, guardian or legal custodian to appear. At the 13 same time the probation department shall prepare a report 14 If a parent, guardian or legal custodian does not 15 the minor. 16 appear at such rehearing, the judge may enter an order prescribing that the minor be kept in a suitable place 17 designated by the Department of Human Services or a licensed 19 child welfare agency. The time during which a minor is in custody after being released upon the request of a parent, 20 21 guardian or legal custodian shall be considered as time spent 22 in detention for purposes of scheduling the trial.
 - Any party, including the State, the temporary custodian, an agency providing services to the minor or family under a service plan pursuant to Section 8.2 of the Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act, foster parent, or any of their representatives, may file a motion to modify or vacate a temporary custody order or vacate a detention or shelter care order on any of the following grounds:
 - (a) It is no longer a matter of immediate and urgent necessity that the minor remain in detention or shelter care; or
- (b) There is a material change in the circumstances 33 34 of the natural family from which the minor was removed;

2 (c) A person, including a parent, relative or legal guardian, is capable of assuming temporary custody of the 3 4 minor; or

5 (d) Services provided by the Department of Children and Family Services or a child welfare agency or other 6 7 service provider have been successful in eliminating the 8 need for temporary custody.

The clerk shall set the matter for hearing not later than 14 days after such motion is filed. In the event that the 10 11 court modifies or vacates a temporary order but does not vacate its finding of probable cause, the court may order 12 that appropriate services be continued or initiated in behalf 13 of the minor and his or her family. 14

Whenever a petition has been filed under Section 5-520 the court can, at any time prior to trial or sentencing, order that the minor be placed in detention or a shelter care facility after the court conducts a hearing and finds that the conduct and behavior of the minor may endanger the health, person, welfare, or property of himself or others or that the circumstances of his or her home environment may endanger his or her health, person, welfare or property.
