- 4 Section 5. The Election Code is amended by changing
- 5 Sections 24-1, 24A-4, and 24B-4 as follows:
- (10 ILCS 5/24-1) (from Ch. 46, par. 24-1) 6 Sec. 24-1. The election authority in all jurisdictions 7 8 when voting machines are used shall, except as otherwise provided in this Code, provide a voting machine or voting 9 machines for any or all of the election precincts or election 10 districts, as the case may be, for which the election 11 authority is by law charged with the duty of conducting an 12 13 elections. A voting machine or machines sufficient in number to provide a machine for each 400 voters 14 15 or fraction thereof shall be supplied for use at all elections. However, no such voting machine shall be used, 16 purchased, or adopted until the board of voting machine 17 18 commissioners hereinafter provided for, or a majority thereof, shall have made and filed a report certifying that 19 20 they have examined such machine; that it affords each elector an opportunity to vote in absolute secrecy; that it enables 21 22 each elector to vote a ticket selected in part from the nominees of one party, and in part from the nominees of any 23 all other parties, and in part from independent nominees 24 printed in the columns of candidates for public office, 25 26 in part of persons not in nomination by any party or upon any 27 independent ticket; that it enables each elector to vote a written or printed ballot of his own selection, for any 28

person for any office for whom he may desire to vote; that it enables each elector to vote for all candidates for whom he is entitled to vote, and prevents him from voting for any

1 candidate for any office more than once, unless he is 2 lawfully entitled to cast more than one vote for one candidate, and in that event permits him to cast only as many 3 4 votes for that candidate as he is by law entitled, and no 5 more; that it prevents the elector from voting for more than 6 one person for the same office, unless he is lawfully 7 entitled to vote for more than one person therefor, and in 8 that event permits him to vote for as many persons for that 9 office as he is by law entitled, and no more; and that such machine will register correctly by means of exact counters 10 11 every vote cast for the regular tickets thereon; and has the capacity to contain the tickets of at least 5 political 12 parties with the names of all the candidates 13 thereon, together with all propositions in the form provided by law, 14 15 where such form is prescribed, and where no such provision is 16 made for the form thereof, then in brief form, not to exceed 75 words; that all votes cast on the machine on a regular 17 ballot or ballots shall be registered; that voters may, 18 19 means of irregular ballots or otherwise vote for any person 20 for any office, although such person may not have been 2.1 nominated by any party and his name may not appear on such machine; that when a vote is cast for any person for any such 22 23 office, when his name does not appear on the machine, elector cannot vote for any other name on the machine for the 24 25 same office; that each elector can, understandingly and within the period of 4 minutes cast his vote for all 26 candidates of his choice; that the machine is so constructed 27 that the candidates for presidential electors of 28 any party can be voted for only by voting for the ballot label 29 30 containing a bracket within which are the names of the candidates for President and Vice-President of the party or 31 32 group; that the machine is provided with a lock or locks by the use of which any movement of the voting or registering 33 34 mechanism is absolutely prevented so that it cannot be

1 tampered with or manipulated for any purpose; that the 2 machine is susceptible of being closed during the progress of the voting so that no person can see or know the number of 3 4 votes registered for any candidate; that each elector is 5 permitted to vote for or against any question, proposition or 6 amendment upon which he is entitled to vote, and is prevented 7 from voting for or against any question, proposition or 8 amendment upon which he is not entitled to vote; that the 9 machine is capable of adjustment by the election authority, so as to permit the elector, at a party primary election, to 10 11 vote only for the candidates seeking nomination by the 12 political party in which primary he is entitled to vote: Provided, also that no such machine or machines shall be 13 purchased, unless the party or parties making the sale shall 14 15 guarantee in writing to keep the machine or machines in good 16 working order for 5 years without additional cost and shall give a sufficient bond conditioned to that effect. 17

Voting machines approved for use under this Article may have the capability to inform a voter that he or she has overvoted or spoiled his or her ballot before the ballot is cast and provide the voter with an opportunity to obtain another ballot from the judges of election and to revote.
