1

AN ACT concerning the regulation of professions.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Acupuncture Practice Act is amended by 5 adding Section 20.1 and changing Section 50 as follows:

6 (225 ILCS 2/20.1 new)

Sec. 20.1. Guest instructors of acupuncture. 7 The 8 provisions of this Act do not prohibit an acupuncturist from another State or country, who is not licensed under this Act 9 and who is an invited guest of a professional acupuncture 10 association or scientific acupuncture foundation or an 11 12 acupuncture training program or continuing education provider that is approved under this Act, from engaging in 13 professional education through lectures, clinics, or 14 demonstrations. To qualify as a guest instructor of 15 acupuncture, the acupuncturist must have been issued a guest 16 instructor of acupuncture permit by the Department. The 17 Department shall grant a guest instructor of acupuncture 18 19 permit if the Department determines that the applicant for 20 the permit (i) is currently certified in good standing as an acupuncturist by the National Certification Commission for 21 Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine; or (ii) has sufficient 22 training to qualify as a licensed acupuncturist in Illinois. 23 By rule, the Department may prescribe forms that shall be 24 used to apply for guest instructor of acupuncture permits and 25 charge an application fee to defray expenses borne by the 26 Department in connection with implementation of this 27 28 amendatory Act of the 92nd General Assembly. The applicant shall submit his or her application for a guest instructor of 29 acupuncture permit to the Department. The Department shall 30 31 issue a guest instructor of acupuncture permit, or indicate SB633 Engrossed

1 why the Department has refused to issue the permit, within 60 2 days after the application is complete and on file with the 3 Department. The Department shall maintain a registry of 4 guest instructors of acupuncture. A guest instructor of acupuncture permit shall be valid for 12 months. The guest 5 instructor of acupuncture may engage in the application of 6 acupuncture techniques in conjunction with the lectures, 7 8 clinics, or demonstrations for a maximum of 12 months, but may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private 9 10 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 11 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required in conjunction with these lectures, clinics, or demonstrations. 12

-2-

13 (225 ILCS 2/50)

Sec. 50. Practice prohibited. Unless he or she has been 14 15 issued, by the Department, a valid, existing license as an acupuncturist under this Act, no person may use the title and 16 17 designation of "Acupuncturist", "Licensed Acupuncturist", "Certified Acupuncturist", "C.A.", "Act.", "Lic. Act.", or 18 "Lic. Ac." either directly or indirectly, in connection with 19 his or her profession or business. No person licensed under 20 21 this Act may use the designation "medical", directly or 22 indirectly, in connection with his or her profession or business. Nothing shall prevent a physician from using the 23 24 designation "Acupuncturist".

No person may practice, offer to practice, attempt to practice, or hold himself or herself out to practice as a licensed acupuncturist without being licensed under this Act.

28 This Act does not prohibit a person from applying 29 acupuncture techniques as part of his or her educational 30 training when he or she:

31 (1) is engaged in a State-approved course in 32 acupuncture, as provided in this Act;
 33 (2) is a graduate of a school of acupuncture and

-3-

3 participating in a review course in preparation for 4 taking the National Certification Commission for 5 Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine examination; or 6 (4) is participating in a State-approved continuin 7 education course offered through a State-approved 8 provider. 9 Students attending schools of acupuncture, and 10 professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois 11 may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques of a conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but 13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private	1	participating in a postgraduate training program;
4taking the National Certification Commission for5Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine examination; or6(4) is participating in a State-approved continuing7education course offered through a State-approved8provider.9Students attending schools of acupuncture, and10professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois11may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques is12conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but13may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private14patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage15in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required is16conjunction with their education.	2	(3) is a graduate of a school of acupuncture and
5 Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine examination; or 6 (4) is participating in a State-approved continuin 7 education course offered through a State-approved 8 provider. 9 Students attending schools of acupuncture, and 10 professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois 11 may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques : 12 conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but 13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private 14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : 16 conjunction with their education.	3	participating in a review course in preparation for
6 (4) is participating in a State-approved continuin 7 education course offered through a State-approved 8 provider. 9 Students attending schools of acupuncture, and 10 professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois 11 may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques : 12 conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but 13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet privated 14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : 16 conjunction with their education.	4	taking the National Certification Commission for
7 education course offered through a State-approve 8 provider. 9 Students attending schools of acupuncture, and 10 professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois 11 may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques of acupuncture techniques of acupunction with their education as provided in this Act, but 13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private 14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required of acupunction with their education.	5	Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine examination; or
8 provider. 9 Students attending schools of acupuncture, and 10 professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois 11 may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques : 12 conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but 13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private 14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : 16 conjunction with their education.	6	(4) is participating in a State-approved continuing
9 Students attending schools of acupuncture, an 10 professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois 11 may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques : 12 conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but 13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private 14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : 16 conjunction with their education.	7	education course offered through a State-approved
professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques : conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : conjunction with their education.	8	provider.
11 may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques : 12 conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but 13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private 14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : 16 conjunction with their education.	9	Students attending schools of acupuncture, and
12 conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but 13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private 14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : 16 conjunction with their education.	10	professional acupuncturists who are not licensed in Illinois,
13 may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private 14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : 16 conjunction with their education.	11	may engage in the application of acupuncture techniques in
14 patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage 15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required : 16 conjunction with their education.	12	conjunction with their education as provided in this Act, but
15 in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required 16 conjunction with their education .	13	may not open an office, appoint a place to meet private
16 conjunction with their education.	14	patients, consult with private patients, or otherwise engage
	15	in the practice of acupuncture beyond what is required in
17 (Source: P.A. 89-706, eff. 1-31-97; 90-61, eff. 7-3-97.)	16	conjunction with their education.
	17	(Source: P.A. 89-706, eff. 1-31-97; 90-61, eff. 7-3-97.)

18 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon 19 becoming law.