the decedent's remains as provided in Section 65 of the Crematory Regulation Act or in subsection (a) of Section 40 of this Act, the following persons, in the priority listed, have the right to control the disposition, including cremation, of the decedent's remains and are liable for the reasonable costs of the disposition:

(1) the person designated in a written instrument that decedent, or if there is more than one surviving competent adult child of the decedent, the majority of the surviving reasonable efforts to notify all other surviving competent adult children of their instructions and are not aware of any opposition to those instructions on the part of more than one-half of all surviving competent adult children;

(5) the surviving competent parents of the decedent; if one of the surviving competent parents is absent, the remaining competent parent shall be vested with the rights and duties of this Act after reasonable efforts have been unsuccessful in locating the absent surviving competent parent;

(6) the surviving competent adult person or persons respectively in the next degrees of kindred or, if there is more than one surviving competent adult person of the same degree of kindred, the majority of those persons; less than the majority of surviving competent adult persons of the same degree of kindred shall be vested with the rights and duties of this Act if those persons have used reasonable efforts to notify all other surviving competent adult persons of the same degree of kindred of their instructions and are not aware of any opposition to those instructions on the part of one-half or more of all surviving competent adult persons of the same degree of kindred;

(7) in the case of indigents or any other individuals whose final disposition is the responsibility of the State or any of its instrumentalities, a public administrator, medical examiner, coroner, State appointed guardian, or any other public official charged with arranging the final disposition of the decedent;

(8) in the case of individuals who have donated their bodies to science, or whose death occurred in a nursing home or other private institution, who have executed cremation authorization forms under Section 65 of the Crematory Regulation Act and the institution is charged with making arrangements for the final disposition of the decedent, a representative of the institution; or

(9) any other person or organization that is willing to assume legal and financial responsibility.

Section 15. Requirements for written instrument. A written instrument is legally sufficient under Section 5 if the wording of the instrument complies substantially with Section 10, the instrument is properly completed, the instrument is signed by the decedent, the agent, and each successor agent, and the signature of the decedent is notarized. The written instrument may be modified or revoked only by a subsequent written instrument that complies with this Section.

Section 20. Duties of authorized agent.

(a) A person listed in Section 5 has the right, duty, and liability provided by that Section only if there is no person in a priority listed before the person.

(b) If any person who would otherwise have the right to control disposition pursuant to Section 5 has been charged with first or second degree murder or voluntary manslaughter in connection with the decedent's death and those charges are known to the funeral director or cemetery authority, that person's right to control is relinquished and passed on to the next listed person or group of persons in accordance with Section 5.

Section 25. Body parts. In the case of body parts, a representative of the institution that has arranged with a funeral home, cemetery, or crematory authority to cremate or make other appropriate disposition of the body parts may serve as the authorizing agent.

Section 30. Prohibition of cremation; written instructions. No person shall be allowed to authorize cremation when a decedent has left written instructions that he or she does not wish to be cremated.

Section 35. Misrepresentation; liability. A person who represents that he or she knows the identity of a decedent and, in order to procure the disposition, including cremation, of the decedent's remains, signs an order or statement, other than a death certificate, warrants the identity of the decedent and is liable for all damages that result, directly or indirectly, from that warrant.

Section 40. Directions by decedent.

(a) A person may provide written directions for the disposition, including cremation, of the person's remains in a will, a prepaid funeral or burial contract, a cremation authorization form that complies with the Crematory Regulation Act, or in a written instrument that satisfies the provisions of Sections 10 and 15 and that is signed by the person and notarized. The directions may be modified or revoked only by a subsequent writing signed by the person and notarized. The person otherwise entitled to control the disposition of a decedent's remains under this Act shall faithfully carry out the directions of the decedent to the extent that the decedent's estate or the person controlling the disposition are financially able to do so.

(b) If the directions are in a will, they shall be carried out immediately without the necessity of probate. If the will is not probated or is declared invalid for testamentary purposes, the directions are valid to the extent to which they have been acted on in good faith.

Section 45. Liability. There shall be no liability for a cemetery organization, a business operating a crematory or columbarium or both, a funeral director or an embalmer, or a funeral establishment that carries out the written directions of a decedent or the directions of any person who represents that the person is entitled to control the disposition of the decedent's remains. Nothing herein shall be intended or construed to reduce or eliminate liability for the gross negligence or willful acts of any cemetery organization, business operating a crematory or columbarium or both, funeral director or embalmer, or funeral establishment.

Section 50. Disputes. Any dispute among any of the persons listed in Section 5 concerning their right to control the disposition, including cremation, of a decedent's remains shall be resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction. A cemetery organization or funeral establishment shall not be liable for refusing to accept the decedent's remains, or to inter or otherwise dispose of the decedent's remains, until it receives a court order or other suitable confirmation that the dispute has been resolved or settled.

Section 300. The Crematory Regulation Act is amended by changing Section 15 as follows:

(410 ILCS 18/15)

Sec. 15. Authorizing agent. The priority of the person or persons who have the right to serve as the authorizing agent for cremation is in the same priority as provided for in Section 5 of the Disposition of Remains Act.

~~(a) The following persons, in the priority listed, shall have the right to serve as an authorizing agent:~~

~~(1) The individual who was the spouse of the decedent at the time of the decedent's death, except as set forth in paragraphs (2) or (3) of this subsection.~~

~~(2) Any person acting on the instructions of a decedent who authorized his or her own cremation through the execution, on a pre-need basis, of a cremation authorization form under Section 70, unless the authorization specifically provides for a designated survivor to alter the arrangements under subsection (b) of Section 70, and the designated survivor has contacted the crematory authority and expressed the desire to alter the~~

~~arrangements. The actions of such a designated survivor, however, shall not prevent another individual, who has a priority right superior to that of the designated survivor according to this Section, from authorizing the cremation of the decedent by executing a new cremation authorization form.~~

~~(3) Any person serving as executor or legal representative of a decedent's estate and acting according to the decedent's written instructions.~~

~~(4) The decedent's surviving adult children. If there is more than one adult child, any adult child, who confirms in writing the notification of all other adult children, may serve as the authorizing agent, unless the crematory authority receives a written objection to the cremation from another adult child.~~

~~(5) The decedent's surviving parent. If the decedent is survived by 2 parents, either parent may serve as the authorizing agent unless the crematory authority receives a written objection to the cremation from the other parent.~~

~~(6) The person in the next degree of kinship under the laws of descent and distribution to inherit the estate of the decedent. If there is more than one person of the same degree, any person of that degree may serve as the authorizing agent.~~

~~(7) In the case of indigents or any other individuals whose final disposition is the responsibility of the State or any of its instrumentalities, a public administrator, medical examiner, coroner, State appointed guardian, or any other public official charged with arranging the final disposition of the decedent may serve as the authorizing agent.~~

~~(8) In the case of individuals who have donated their bodies to science or whose death occurred in a nursing home or other private institution, who have executed cremation authorization forms under Section 65 and the institution is charged with making arrangements for the final disposition~~

~~of the decedent, a representative of the institution may serve as the authorizing agent.~~

~~(9) In the absence of any person under paragraphs (1) through (8), any person willing to assume the responsibility as authorizing agent, as specified in this Act.~~

~~(b) In the case of body parts, a representative of the institution that has arranged with the crematory authority to cremate the body part may serve as the authorizing agent.~~

~~(c) No person may serve or shall be allowed to serve as an authorizing agent when a decedent has left instructions in the manner provided under subsection (a) of this Section that they do not wish to be cremated.~~
