PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTION

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1591

Offered by Senator Manar and all Senators:
Mourns the death of Rudolph "Rudy" Davenport of Springfield.

By unanimous consent, the foregoing resolution was referred to the Resolutions Consent Calendar.

Senator Connelly offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1590

WHEREAS, Illinois' income tax has been levied at a non-graduated rate since its inception in 1969; and

WHEREAS, The current flat rate structure is a commitment from the Constitution of the State of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Illinois' current flat tax rate provides a more predictable, sustainable, and enticing climate for businesses and individuals alike; and

WHEREAS, A graduated income tax is unresponsive to a modern economy, contributing to slower economic growth, less entrepreneurship, and fewer new jobs; and

WHEREAS, States with lower tax burdens, lower marginal tax rates, and less progressivity have more robust economies, with strong incentives to live, work, and start new businesses; and

[April 11, 2018]

WHEREAS, A graduated income tax creates an ever-increasing disincentive for work at each "step" in the marginal tax rate; and

WHEREAS, Sound tax policy should reward work effort, saving, investment, risk-taking, and entrepreneurship to promote self-sustaining prosperity; and

WHEREAS, Taxpayers would have no certainty what the final tax rates would be in the event that a constitutional amendment permitting a graduated income tax goes before voters; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we state our belief that the Illinois Constitution should not be amended to permit a graduated income tax; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be delivered to all Illinois constitutional officers, the Speaker and Minority Leader of the Illinois House of Representatives, and the President and Minority Leader of the Illinois Senate.

Senator T. Cullerton offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1592

WHEREAS, The manner in which our nation treats our animals is a direct reflection on society; and

WHEREAS, Animal cruelty can be either deliberate abuse or simply the failure to take care of an animal; and

WHEREAS, Recent statistics show that an animal is abused every ten seconds, and many cases are never reported; the common victims are dogs and cats; and

WHEREAS, Most reported animal cruelty comes in the form of neglect, including a failure to provide for the basic needs of an animal, hoarding, lack of shelter or veterinary care, tethering and abandonment, and other forms of abuse; and

WHEREAS, It is important to raise awareness and use available information to try to understand and prevent causes of abuse and neglect; it is also important to condemn organized animal cruelty, such as dog fighting and cockfighting, which often results in death and perpetual suffering; since there is a well-documented link between animal cruelty and violence against people, including links between animal abusers and violence against their own family members, direct abuse should be promptly reported to law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, It is also important that consumers strive to be conscientious purchasers of products that are cruelty free; and

WHEREAS, According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, pet ownership has been shown to help lower blood pressure, cholesterol levels, and feelings of loneliness; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 3.4 million cats and kittens and 3.9 million dogs enter U.S. shelters annually, with millions losing their lives; potential pet owners should consider the option of adopting shelter cats and dogs; additionally, animal shelters are in constant need of volunteers to help complete every day tasks, such as walking and socializing with furry friends; reaching out to a local animal shelter helps remedy animal abuse in our State; and

WHEREAS, Illinois has done tremendous work to put policies in place to protect animals across our communities to ensure they are well taken care of; and

[April 11, 2018]

WHEREAS, Animal Cruelty Prevention Month signifies the importance of raising awareness and advocating for our voiceless friends; and

WHEREAS, Animal cruelty prevention is a major concern for our society at large, and it is important to spread the word to neighbors, friends, and family members to put a stop to this silent epidemic in communities across our State; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRETH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we designate April 2018 as Animal Cruelty Prevention Month in Illinois in order to raise awareness about this silent crisis and give a voice to our furry friends.
