Senator Halvorson offered the following amendment:

AMENDMENT NO. 4

AMENDMENT NO. 4. Amend Senate Bill 155, AS AMENDED, by replacing everything after the enacting clause with the following:

"Section 5. The State Prompt Payment Act is amended by changing Section 7 as follows:

(30 ILCS 540/7) (from Ch. 127, par. 132.407)

Sec. 7. Payments to subcontractors and material suppliers. (a) When a State official or agency responsible for administering a contract submits a voucher to the Comptroller for payment to a contractor, that State official or agency shall promptly make available electronically the voucher number, the date of the voucher, and the amount of the voucher. The State official or agency responsible for administering the contract shall provide subcontractors and material suppliers, known to the State official or agency, with instructions on how to access the electronic information. When a contractor receives any payment, the contractor shall pay each subcontractor and material supplier in proportion to the work completed by each subcontractor and material supplier their application less any retention. If the contractor receives less than the full payment due under the public construction contract, the contractor shall be obligated to disburse on a pro rata basis those funds received, with the contractor, subcontractors and material suppliers each receiving a prorated portion based on the amount of payment. When, however, the public owner does not release the full payment due under the contract because there are specific areas of work or materials the contractor is rejecting or because the contractor has otherwise determined such areas are not suitable for payment, then those specific subcontractors or suppliers involved shall not be paid for that portion of work rejected or deemed not suitable for payment and all other subcontractors and suppliers shall be paid in full.

(b) If the contractor, without reasonable cause, fails to make full ~~any~~ payment of amounts due under subsection (a) to his subcontractors and material suppliers within 15 days after receipt of payment under the public construction contract, the contractor shall pay to his subcontractors and material suppliers, in addition to the payment due them, interest in the amount of 4% ~~2%~~ per month, calculated from the expiration of the 15-day period until fully paid. This subsection shall also apply to any payments made by subcontractors and material suppliers to their subcontractors and material suppliers and to all payments made to lower tier subcontractors and material suppliers throughout the contracting chain. If a State official or agency responsible for administering a contract determines, after notice to appropriate parties and a hearing, that a contractor has failed to make payment in full as provided in this subsection within 45 days after receipt of payment under the public construction contract, then that contractor is barred from entering into a State public construction contract for a period of one year beginning on that 45th day. The hearing must be held within 30 days after the official or agency is notified that there is reason to believe a violation has occurred. (Source: P.A. 87-773)."

Senator Halvorson moved that the foregoing amendment be ordered to lie on the table.

The motion to table prevailed.

Senator Halvorson offered the following amendment and moved its adoption:

AMENDMENT NO. 5

AMENDMENT NO. 5. Amend Senate Bill 155, AS AMENDED, by replacing everything after the enacting clause with the following:

"Section 5. The State Prompt Payment Act is amended by changing Section 7 as follows:

State official or agency setting forth the amount owed by the contractor and the contractor's failure to timely pay the amount owed.

(2) The State official or agency, within 15 days after receipt of a subcontractor's or material supplier's written notice of the failure to receive payment from the contractor, shall hold a hearing to determine whether the contractor withheld payment, without reasonable cause, from the subcontractors and material suppliers and what amount, if any, is due to the subcontractors and material suppliers. The State official or agency shall provide appropriate notice to the parties of the date, time, and location of the hearing.

(3) If the State official or agency determines that the contractor failed to make payment in full, without reasonable cause, as provided in subsection (a), then the State official or agency shall, in writing, direct the contractor to pay the amount owed to the subcontractors and material suppliers plus interest within 15 days after the State official's or agency's finding.

(4) If a contractor fails to make full payment within 15 days after the State official's or agency's finding, then the contractor shall be barred from entering into a State public construction contract for a period of one year beginning on the date of the State official's or agency's finding.

(Source: P.A. 87-773.)"

The motion prevailed.

And the amendment was adopted and ordered printed.

There being no further amendments, the foregoing Amendment No. 5 was ordered engrossed; and the bill, as amended was ordered to a third reading.

SENATE BILL RECALLED

On motion of Senator Hendon, Senate Bill No. 1116 was recalled from the order of third reading to the order of second reading.

Senator Hendon offered the following amendment and moved its adoption:

AMENDMENT NO. 3

AMENDMENT NO. 3. Amend Senate Bill 1116 by replacing the title with the following:

"AN ACT in relation to financial matters."; and by replacing everything after the enacting clause with the following:

"Section 5. The Illinois Financial Services Development Act is amended by changing Section 8 as follows:

(205 ILCS 675/8) (from Ch. 17, par. 7008)

Sec. 8. Amendment of governing agreement. (a) If the agreement governing a revolving credit plan so provides or allows, a financial institution may at any time or from time to time amend the terms of such agreement in accordance with the further provisions of this Section 8. The financial institution shall notify each affected borrower of the amendment in the manner set forth in the agreement governing the plan and in compliance with the requirements of the Truth-in-Lending Act and regulations promulgated thereunder, as in effect from time to time, if applicable.

(b) Subject to subsection (c) below, if the terms of the agreement governing the plan, as originally drawn or as amended pursuant to this Section so provide, any amendment may, on and after the date upon which it becomes effective as to a particular borrower, apply to all then outstanding unpaid indebtedness in the borrower's account under the plan, including any such indebtedness which shall have arisen out of purchases made or loans obtained prior to the effective date of the amendment.

[April 8, 2003]

(c) If such amendment has the effect of increasing the interest or other charges to be paid by the borrower, the financial institution shall mail or deliver to the borrower, at least 30 days before the effective date of the amendment, a clear and conspicuous written notice which shall:

- (1) describe the amendment and the existing term or terms of the agreement affected by the amendment,
- (2) set forth the effective date of the amendment,
- (3) state whether or not the amendment will apply to the outstanding unpaid indebtedness as of the effective date of the amendment,
- (4) state that absent the borrower's written notice to the financial institution within 30 days of the earlier of the mailing or delivery of the notice of amendment that the borrower does not agree to accept the amendment, the amendment will become effective and apply to the borrower's account, and
- (5) provide an address to which the borrower may send notice of the borrower's election not to accept the amendment and include an addressed postcard that the borrower may return to the financial institution for that purpose.

(c-5) If such amendment results in an unfavorable change in the interest or other charges on a revolving credit plan which: (i) relates to a change in the borrower's credit standing, (ii) does not affect all or a substantial portion of a class of the creditor's accounts, and (iii) does not relate to inactivity, default, or delinquency on that revolving credit plan, the financial institution shall include in the notice required by subsection (c) of this Section 8 a statement that is substantially similar to the following:

Change in Credit Standing

The amendment to the terms of your account relates to a change in your credit standing. The change in your credit standing may have resulted from a default or delinquency on other accounts you may have, or other adverse changes in your financial circumstances. If you submit the enclosed postcard or otherwise notify us in a timely manner as provided in this notice that you do not accept the amendment, you will be able to pay off your existing balance at the rate in effect prior to the amendment. However, in that instance, you may not be eligible to obtain additional credit under this plan after the effective date of the amendment. If you do not provide timely notice to us as provided in this notice that you do not accept the amendment, the amendment to the terms of your account will become effective and apply to your account.

(c-10) As a condition to the effectiveness of the borrower's notice not to accept the amendment, the financial institution may require the borrower to return all credit devices.

Any borrower who gives a timely notice electing not to accept the amendment shall be permitted to pay the outstanding unpaid indebtedness in the borrower's account under the plan in accordance with the terms of the agreement governing the plan without giving effect to the amendment.

Notwithstanding the financial institution's receipt of the borrower's notice under item (4) that the borrower does not accept the amendment, the amendment shall be deemed to have been accepted and effective with respect to the borrower and the borrower's account if the borrower uses the credit device to obtain credit under the credit plan on or after the effective date of the amendment, and the amendment shall be deemed effective as of the effective date originally disclosed by the financial institution.

(d) For purposes of this Section, the following shall not be deemed an amendment which has the effect of increasing the interest to be paid by the borrower:

- (1) a decrease in the required amount of periodic installment payments; and
- (2) a change from a daily periodic rate to a periodic rate other than daily, or from a periodic rate other than daily to a daily periodic rate, provided that there is no resulting change in the annual percentage rate as determined in accordance with the Truth-in-Lending Act and regulations promulgated thereunder, as in effect from time to time.

(Source: P.A. 88-531.) Section 10. The Tax Refund Anticipation Loan Disclosure Act is amended by changing Section 10 as follows:

(815 ILCS 177/10)

Sec. 10. Disclosure requirements. At the time a borrower applies for a refund anticipation loan, a facilitator shall disclose to the borrower on a document that is separate from the loan application:

- (1) the refund anticipation loan fee schedule;
- (1.5) the Annual Percentage Rate utilizing a 10-day time period;
- (2) the estimated fee for preparing and electronically filing a tax return;
- (2.5) the total cost to the borrower for utilizing a refund anticipation loan;
- (3) the estimated date that the loan proceeds will be paid to the borrower if the loan is approved;
- (4) that the borrower is responsible for repayment of the loan and related fees in the event the tax refund is not paid or not paid in full; and

(5) the availability of electronic filing for the income tax return of the borrower and the average time announced by the federal Internal Revenue Service within which the borrower can expect to receive a refund if the borrower's return is filed electronically and the borrower does not obtain a refund anticipation loan.

(Source: P.A. 92-664, eff. 1-1-03.) Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect on January 1, 2004."

The motion prevailed.

And the amendment was adopted and ordered printed.

There being no further amendments, the foregoing Amendment No. 3 was ordered engrossed; and the bill, as amended was ordered to a third reading.
