Mr. President, why do you seek recognition?

SENATOR HARMON:

A point of personal privilege, Madam President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HUNTER)

State your point, Mr. President.

SENATOR HARMON:

Thank you, Madam President. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I rise with sad news this morning. Pat Giganti, one of our ageless and priceless LA's, was with us here in the Capitol on Tuesday, went to the hospital feeling ill and passed away overnight. Pat was an institution in the Senate. I asked my Chief of Staff to track down when she started in the General Assembly. We can find no paperwork. We suspect Pat might predate paper. But Pat worked for Senator Viverito until the mid-2000's and sort of retired but never really retired. She went wherever we needed her. I hope it is not news to any of you that we would sometimes send her to troublesome new Members to break them in. If you had Pat and you don't know why, now you do. But she never failed to bring order and discipline. She was also our most ferocious COVID doorkeeper and would not let any of us in without our tests, myself included. I did not have any State police chasing me down in the building, as some lobbyists may have had after a run in with Pat. But she was one of a kind. And it is in a continuing series of sad news for our extended Senate family this season. I would ask you all to join me in a moment of silence.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HUNTER)

Members, would you please rise for a moment of silence? Ladies and Gentlemen, please be seated. We will be moving to Senate Bills 2nd Reading. Rest in peace, Pat. On page 3, in the middle,
