SENATOR D'ARCO:

Thank you, Mr. President. What we did was raise the

SENATOR KUSTRA:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. This deals with the problem, which was discovered by staff in committee. Thank you, Mr. President. This is a very complex and technical amendment to the Electronics Funds transfer. It would allow for the financial institutions who own a proprietary network to provide processing services and to establish point of sale terminals anywhere within the geographic limits of...in which an institution may establish an office. It's rather...lengthy and detailed. I would attempt to explain it to anyone who wishes to...to ask. It is a committee amendment, I would ask for its adoption.
