Philip J. Rock, chairman.

PRESIDENT:

Resolutions, Madam Secretary.

SECRETARY:

Senate Resolution 1129 offered by Senator Hawkinson.

Senate Resolution 1130 offered by Senator Woodyard.

Senate Resolution 1131 offered by Senator Raica.

Senate Resolution 1132 offered by Senator Raica.

They're all congratulatory.

Senate Resolution 1133 offered by Senator Berman, it's a death resolution.

PRESIDENT:

Consent...with leave of the Body, we'll add those to the Consent Calendar which will be adopted a little later today. Without objection, leave is granted. (Machine cut-off)...Karpziel, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR KARPIEL:

...I'd like to ask to be leave...to ask leave to be listed as a primary sponsor on 3982...House Bill 3982. It's been discussed with everybody.

PRESIDENT:

The lady seeks leave to be shown as a chief sponsor, House Bill 3982. Without objection, leave is granted. Senator Dunn.

SENATOR TOM DUNN:

Thank you, Mr. President. I ask leave to have Senator Berman added as a hyphenated cosponsor on 2968, I am the sponsor of the bill.

PRESIDENT:

All right. Senator Dunn seeks leave to add Senator Berman as the hyphenated cosponsor on 2968. Without objection, leave is granted. Senator Savickas.

SENATOR SAVICKAS:

Yes, Mr. President, I would seek leave of the Body to move that we suspend the rules on posting so that as the bills that were read in and the bills that will be coming out on Assignment of Bills Committee can be posted immediately.

PRESIDENT:

All right. The gentleman seeks leave to waive the six-day posting requirement for the bills that have been reported out of the Rules Committee and out of the Assignment of Bills Committee. The Chair would request that the chairman of the respective committees post everything that is assigned to them so that all members will have an opportunity to have their bills heard. Without objection, leave is granted. It's so ordered. Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH:

(Machine cutoff)...President, I...like leave of the Body to place Senator Schaffer as chief sponsor for House Bill 923 and Margaret Smith as hyphenated sponsor.

PRESIDENT:

All right. The...the lady seeks leave to show Senator Schaffer as the chief sponsor of House 923, hyphenated cosponsor Senator Smith. Without objection, leave is granted. I would just alert you, ladies and gentlemen, again, if you'll start at page 2 on the Calendar on the Order of House Bills 1st Reading, there are a number of bills that have not yet been picked up. The fact of the matter is, time is of the essence. If you have a House member that's requested that you sponsor a bill, please indicate that to the Secretary so we can get it in the mix. Illinois Information Service has requested permission to film the Memorial Service and the proceedings. Without objection, leave is granted. I'd ask all members to please take their seats and I'd ask our guests on the Floor to please find a seat. (Machine cutoff)...ask the doormen to be alert, if any member obviously wishes admittance, he or she is certainly to be admitted. We have a number of honored guests with us today for the purpose of our annual Memorial Day Service which is dedicated in honor of the men and women serving in the United States Armed Forces this year and the Persian Gulf, and I would ask the members to please be in their seats and be attentive. (Machine cutoff)...request that the doormen do not...do not during the...this service bring in any cards or notes or letters or requests for the Senators to step out. (Machine cutoff)...will yield to Senator Sam Vadalabene who is the Memorial Day Program chairman. Senator Sam.

SENATOR VADALABENE:

(Machine cutoff)...you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, guests in the gallery, we are proud to assemble today for our annual Memorial Day Program. It is a day when we honor our departed servicemen and servicewomen. Memorial Day is a most sacred holiday in our United States of America. It is a day we also honor our living servicemen and servicewomen. So please join together in this program of reverence and respect for both the living and dead. We will now have Bugler Steve Hall play the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," accompanied by Drummer Joseph Richiusa.

STEVE HALL AND JOSEPH RICHIUSA:

(Steve Hall and Joseph Richiusa play "Battle Hymn of the Republic")

SENATOR VADALABENE:

I now recognize Senator Margaret Smith who will read the poem, "Memories" by Velma Taliaferro. Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman, Senator Vadalabene. Mrs. Velma Taliaferro had great and unexpected results from her poem "Memories." It was written with the intent of being read at the grave of her soldier son, Jack, who was buried in Holland during World War II. A newspaper in Masterich printed the essay and an outpouring of empathy and love from the Dutch was the results. Due to their generosity, Mrs. Taliaferro at the age of eighty-seven was able to travel to the Netherlands for a two-week all-expense-paid trip and sprinkled soil from her Oklahoma garden on her son's grave. The poem "Memories."

(Senator Smith reads "Memories")

SENATOR VADALABENE:

I now recognize Senator Penny Severns who will read "In Flanders Field" by Colonel John M. McCrae. Senator Severns.

SENATOR SEVERNS:

Thank you, Senator Sam. The best known poem of World War I, perhaps the most loved war lyric of the twentieth century, was written by an obscure Canadian who's almost forgotten today. It was John McCrae, a soldier positioned in...who penned in Flanders Field a poem as permanently associated with the great war as the poppy is with the American Veterans. His story is a tribute to him, to his nation and to the ideals for which he died. This is his poem published in punch December 8th, 1915.

(Senator Severns reads "In Flanders Field")

SENATOR VADALABENE:

(Machine cutoff)...now have Bugler Steve Hall and Drummer Joseph Richiusa play "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

STEVE HALL AND JOSEPH RICHIUSA:

(Steve Hall and Joseph Richiusa play "When Johnny Comes Marching Home")

SENATOR VADALABENE:

(Machine cutoff)...recognize Senator Judy Topinka who will read the poem "Memorial Day" by William J. Aker. Senator Topinka.

SENATOR TOPINKA:

Thank you, Senator Sam. William J. Aker was a native son, he wrote this poem when he was ninety-one years old. He was born and raised on a farm in Waterloo, Illinois and ultimately served in World War I under General John J. Pershing. He was asked by the Veterans' Administration to write a commemorative poem, and so he did, updating a poem he had written in 1941 and called it "Memorial Day."

(Senator Topinka reads "Memorial Day")

SENATOR VADALABENE:

(Machine cutoff)...would like to recognize at this time seated in the President's Gallery, Department Commander Joseph White of the AMVETS and Bernard Kruger, commander of the VFW and Commander James Larr of Disabled...Disabled Veterans. Let's give them a hand, please. I now recognize Senator Adeline Geo-Karis, who served in World War II as a lieutenant commander in the United States Navy Reserve, for the purpose of introduction...introducing our guest speaker. Senator Geo-Karis.

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

Thank you, Senator Vadalabene, Senator Mitchler and friends. Rear Admiral John F. Calhoun who is the commanding officer of the Naval Recruit Training Command at Great Lakes, Illinois, probably the greatest naval training base in the country. He's a native of Springfield, Missouri and attended the Missouri School of Mines before joining the Navy as a naval aviation cadet in 1957. He was commissioned an ensign and designated a naval aviator in October 1958. His first assignment as a navigator was with Patrol Squadron 46 flying P-5Ms and P-2V aircraft. Rear Admiral Calhoun's subsequent assignments included flight instructed duty in Patrol Squadron 31, two years as a student at the United States Naval Postgraduate School and a tour in USS Curatuck AV 7. In 1967, Rear Admiral Calhoun completed jet transition and replacement pilot training in the 84 Aircraft, it was...and was assigned to Attack Squadron 55 completing two combat deployments to Southeast Asia in the USS Hancock. His next assignment was with Attack Squadron 174 for a transition to the 87 Aircraft. He served as a maintenance officer and executive officer of VA-174 prior to assuming command of Attack Squadron 12 on board the USS Independence in October 1973. In 1975, Rear Admiral Calhoun was assigned to the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations at the 87...program coordinator, a position he held until July 1977 when he assumed command of Attack Squadron 174. From March 1979 until November 1980, Rear Admiral Calhoun served as executive officer of the aircraft carrier USS Independence, and from July 1981 until February 1983, he commanded the fast combat support ship USS Detroit. Following command of the USS Detroit, he was assigned as executive assistant to the chief of staff supreme allied commander Atlantic from March 1983 until April 1984. In July 1984, he assumed command of the aircraft carrier USS Constellation and served as commanding officer until selected for flag rank...in December 1985. Rear Admiral Calhoun served as deputy director and director of Strategy, Plans and Policy Division in the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations from March 1986 until June 1987. In July 1987, he assumed the duties of commander Naval Training Center, Great Lakes. Rear Admiral Calhoun has been awarded the Legion of Merit, Distinguished Flying Cross, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Air Medal and the Navy Commendation Medal. He and his wife, the former Claudia Schmel of Pensacola, Florida, have a daughter Catherine Anne. He's doing a very fine job at Great Lakes and I ask you all to help me welcome Admiral Calhoun to our Navy Center...to...to our Senate rather.

ADMIRAL CALHOUN:

(Remarks by Admiral Calhoun)

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Thank you, Admiral Calhoun. We are honored to have you attend our annual Senate Memorial Day Program and be our guest speaker. (Machine cutoff)...privileged to call upon Major General Sam Leroy Mendel, the Illinois State Militia, who is commander-in-chief of the Spanish-American War Veterans to give the closing prayer and possibly a closing song. Commander-in-Chief Mendel is one of the two survivors...surviving member of the Spanish-American War Veterans. The other is Captain Cook of Tempe, Arizona who served for forty-four years in the United States Navy. Let's give him a rounding applause. General Mendel.

GENERAL SAM LEROY MENDEL:

(Remarks given by General Mendel)

SENATOR VADALABENE:

(Machine cutoff)...General Mendel is Jim Philips who takes him around and takes care of him real well. (Machine cutoff)...now recognize Senator Earlean Collins who will sing "God Bless America." Earlean, you're following up a good singer here.

SENATOR COLLINS:

Yes. Will...will you please join in with me, please, "God Bless America."

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Everybody stand.

SENATOR COLLINS:

(Senator Collins sings "God Bless America")

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Very good. I think we ought to commend the...the ladies of the Senate, our Senator who handled the program very well. Let's give our girl...ladies...and acknowledge Senator Ray Hudson who accompanied me yesterday in our poppy sales...were very generous, the lobbyists, and all of you. Let's give Ray Hudson...and last but not least our own Senator Bob Mitchler who...who works very hard every year to put this program together. Okay. Now, Senators and guests, will you please remain standing for the sounding of "Taps" and the retiring of the colors. "Taps" will be sounded and we will retire the color...the colors with a right hand salute during the retiring.

STEVE HALL AND JOSEPH RICHIUSA:

(Steve Hall and Joseph Richiusa play "Taps")

SENATOR VADALABENE:

(Machine cutoff)...concludes our program and I want to thank President Phil Rock and Minority Leader Pate Philip for letting us participate in this program again. Thank you and God Bless you. (Machine cutoff)...will be in recess for five minutes.

All right. Senator Vadalabene then moves the adoption of the Resolutions Consent Calendar. That is Senate Resolutions 115...1115, 1116, 1117, 1118, 1119, 1120, 1121, 1122, 1123, 1124, 25, 1127, 1128, 1129, 1130, House Joint Resolution 196 and Senate Resolutions 1131, 1132, 1133, 1134, 1135 and 1136. All in favor indicate by saying Aye. All opposed. The Ayes have it. The Resolutions Consent Calendar is adopted. Any further business to come before the Senate? If not, Senator Demuzio moves that the Senate stand adjourned till Wednesday, June the 1st, at the hour of noon. Have a nice weekend everybody. The Senate stands adjourned.
