SENATOR NETSCH:

Thank you, Mr. President. The amendment restructured the definition of low income families. This has to do with tax abatements on tax delinquent property in Cook County and what we did was to tie in more closely to a definition used by HUD to avoid any complications or problems. I would move the adoption of Amendment No. 1 to...House Bill 1411.

PRESIDENT:

2nd reading of the bill. Committee on Revenue offers one committee amendment.

PRESIDENT:

Senator Netsch on Committee Amendment No. 1.

SENATOR NETSCH:

Thank you, Mr. President. This amendment was a compromise that was an attempt to accommodate the concerns of...a number of housing active groups on the westside of Chicago with the also legitimate concerns of the city and others that the program not in any way be allowed to impinge on existing programs in blighted or conservation areas. So, effectively, what it does is not mandate that property be offered first to the list of priority groups but that there be an opportunity for...for it to be used for low income and that these other groups be allowed to participate except in those areas where it would conflict with already existing programs. It was something that I think everyone involved in this important legislation agreed to, and I would move the adoption of Amendment No. 1 to House Bill 1412.

PRESIDENT:

All right. Senator Netsch has moved the adoption of Amendment No. 1 to House Bill 1412. Any discussion? Senator Alexander, on this question?
