Last year, I was the sponsor of an amendment for Mrs. Rowell, who is a widow, who was -- whose husband was shot in our DCFS Office. He was an employee of the DCFS. The sponsor gave her fifty million -- fifty thousand dollars. It was Public Act 85-1394. The original bill was House Bill 3570. I would like to put it in the record that the legislative intent was that fifty thousand dollars was life insurance.

PRESIDENT ROCK:

The record will so reflect. All right. Ladies and Gentlemen, before we wind up our business here, which we will do very shortly, we have with us a very special guest who has come a long way - all the way from California, as a matter of fact. And I'd ask Senator Margaret Smith to please introduce our special guest, and I'd ask for your attention.

assembled here this morning, I would like to first make mention that for three days the Women in Government are holding their session here in Springfield, Illinois. And this morning we had, as our keynote speaker, a young lady all the way from Los Angeles, California. Her name is Joy Picus -- Picus. And she represents the San Fernando Valley on the Los Angeles City Council. She was first elected in 1977, and is currently serving her fourth-year term there. Joy has earned her reputation as an effective and responsive public official who gets the job done. Councilwoman Picus -- may I have your attention please? Thank you very kindly. We have guests. Thank you. Councilwoman Picus chairs the city council's Human Resource and Labor Relations Committee, which sets policy for Los Angeles' forty-one thousand municipal employees. Her agenda focuses on humanizing the workplace. Recognizing that city employees must juggle family and work responsibilities. During her tenure, the city council has opened a civic center child care facility, jointly financed by the city and the federal government. And the landmark Family Leave Agreement was negotiated for the city's clerical employees. My dear friends, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I'm proud at this time to bring to you, for remarks, Miss Joy Picus. Please receive her.

PRESIDENT ROCK:

All right. Ladies and Gentlemen, the Resolutions Consent Calendar has been distributed. And no objections having been filed, with leave of the Body, we have added 914, 915, 916 and 917 - all of which are congratulatory resolutions - to that Calendar. Senator Demuzio - if there's no objection - now moves the adoption of the Resolutions Consent Calendar. All in favor, indicate by saying Aye. All opposed. The Ayes have it. The resolutions contained on the Consent Calendar are adopted. Senator Netsch, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR NETSCH:

Thank you, Mr. President. An announcement, if I might, before we adjourn. The Revenue Committee was scheduled to meet at one o'clock. We will meet, but we will move it up to -- oh, say, fifteen minutes after adjournment, which I assume will put us in before one o'clock. I would guess that we might have an hour's testimony from both the Economic and Fiscal Commission and the Taxpayers Federation to get us kind of back up to date on both property tax issues and fiscal background issues. So it is -- we will not be voting on anything. There are no bills before us at the moment. But I think it will be very useful. It will be fifteen minutes after adjournment in Room 212. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROCK:

All right. Any further business to come before the Senate? Further announcements? All right. Again, let me repeat that we will adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning, and we will be open for business tomorrow only to the extent that we will have Introduction of Bills. There will be no substantive business, nor any roll calls, tomorrow. So if there is no further business, Senator Vadalabene moves that the Senate stand adjourned until Friday, April the 6th, at the hour of 9:00 a.m. Tomorrow morning at nine o'clock, Ladies and Gentlemen.
