SENATOR ROCK:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. The motion concerns itself with three bills, House Bill 1487, House Bills 1609 and 2733. Each of them is a matter of some urgency to the administration or to the Constitutional Officers, and so I would move that the Committee on Rules be discharged from further consideration of House Bill 1487 and 1609, and that 1487 be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary, House Bill 1609 be re-referred to the Committee on Executive, and 2733 currently resides in the Energy Committee. I requested of the Committee Chairman that they take up these bills tomorrow, so I would also move you that the posting notices be waived -- and I so move.

SENATOR J.J. JOYCE:

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

SENATOR SEVERNS:

Thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. I'd like to request leave of the Body to have the chief sponsorship from House Bill 1487 changed from myself to Senator Marovitz. So it would read Marovitz - Severns - Collins.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

I was hoping I could get House Bill 1059 discharged from Committee on Local Government. I have talked to the Chairman. She agrees. We wanted to have us a backup on some small bills.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DEMUZIO)

Well, let's -- let's get back to that one. Further -- further business? Senator Rock.

SENATOR ROCK:

Well. Thank you, Mr. President. I would -- I would say, Senator Fawell, you really ought to talk to Senator Philip. We're attempting to pare down what we will consider in the next two and a half days, so that the Members can be back in their districts about their business. I know, given all the committee meetings that are taking place and the fact that the designees of the respective caucuses will be meeting again with respect to property tax relief, I would suggest and will move that the Senate stand adjourned until one o'clock. One o'clock tomorrow afternoon.
