and there'll be only one nurse left in the entire Capitol Complex. And I think that's a serious offense, and I think that somebody on the -- the Chairman of the Public Health should check into this and see -- I don't think that we're saving any money by not having any nurses in the Capitol Complex. Is there any way we can check that out?

PRESIDENT ROCK:

I will -- I will do so immediately. That's the first I've heard of it.

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Yeah. That's very serious, and I think we -- especially fellows like me who go -- call on these nurses all the time.
