John Friedland was there; I was there; Mr. Klemm was there. Carol Frederick is their administrative liaison. They're doing a nice job. And if you had seen my hair before I had it done this morning, you'll understand they really did a magnificent job. So I just ask you all to go and see them.

very special guests. The Chair will yield to Senator Frank Watson for introductions.

SENATOR WATSON:

Thank you, Mr. President. First of all, I'd like to have leave for immediate consideration of Senate Resolution 1387. Any opposition? Can I -- can the President have leave? Leave is granted. And they're with us here today, and we have a resolution which we're going to introduce and have read. Well, I hope you'll all put your flowers on and support this organization. And obviously, in the gallery behind us, we may have some special supporters of this particular group, and we're glad to have all of them with us today. And certainly, these are our leaders of tomorrow, and we appreciate the work that they do, certainly in our schools, and which they will be doing for our State once they get in high school -- get out of high school, get into college, graduate and come back and start making a living. Thank you very much. We'd like to have the resolution read, if we could.

SECRETARY HAWKER:

Senate Resolution 1387 offered by Senator Watson.

(Secretary reads SR No. 1387)

SENATOR WATSON:

PRESIDENT ROCK:

Consent Calendar. All right. Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm sure everybody is aware there is a very significantly heavy Appropriations II Committee meeting scheduled for this afternoon and again for tomorrow morning, along with Appropriations I. So we will be adjourning very quickly here so that those committees can, indeed, meet and listen to all the witnesses who have come down to share their expertise with the committee. Senator Vadalabene, for what purpose do you arise, sir?

SENATOR VADALABENE:

Yes, thank you, Mr. President. There'll be a Democratic Caucus in the President's Office immediately upon adjournment. In your office, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ROCK:

All right. Any further business to come before the Senate? Any announcements? Senator Geo-Karis.

SENATOR GEO-KARIS:

Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, we are not going to be outdone. We're going to have a -- a Caucus of the Republican Party in Senator Philip's Office.

PRESIDENT ROCK:

All right. There'll be a Republican Caucus in Senator Philip's Office immediately. There will be a Democratic Caucus in the President's Office immediately. The committee will attempt -- we will attempt to hold the caucus down, if everybody gets there on

PRESIDENT ROCK:

All right. If there's no further business. Further announcements? Senator Carroll.

SENATOR CARROLL:

Thank you, Mr. President. Just a reminder to the Members of the Appropriations I Committee: its final meeting will be tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. That will be action on the House Bills in the Senate. So we urge everybody to be there on time, so we can move expeditiously.
