Senator Munoz, for what purpose do you arise, sir?

SENATOR MUNOZ:

Thank you, Mr. President. First, I apologize for having anyone on the Floor without asking permission. You had started. So I apologize for that inconvenience, sir. But nonetheless, I'd like to welcome some friends of mine, from my district, as well as a lot of other Senators' districts. We have with us the Mexican-American Chamber of Commerce, on a statewide level, as well as the Puerto Rican Chamber of Commerce. They were here yesterday for a small business conference. So they stayed here today with us and are here visiting. I'd also like to acknowledge that not only they do hard work, working with the businesses in the community, but they take time out. They care about their community. They do an excellent job for the kids in our community. And I just wanted to let that be known. I thank you for being here with us today. And thank you for announcing them.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

To our guests, welcome to Springfield. Senator Demuzio, for what purpose do you arise, sir?

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Mr. President, I'd like the record to reflect that Senator Ronen is absent today, probably will be tomorrow also, due to illness, and that Senator Viverito, on Wednesday and Thursday, is also absent for legislative business. Like the record to reflect.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

Record will so reflect, Senator. Communications.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

Senator Cullerton, for what purpose do you arise, sir?

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Yes. Thank you -- thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. I have a request. I just wanted to make sure I put it on the record. Senator Demuzio and I, along with Senator Dudycz, Weaver and Dillard, are on the Rules Committee. We met today for approximately three or four minutes. During the time we were meeting, as we were coming out, there was a vote on 3rd Reading. It was only -- the only vote of the day, I -- from what I understand. So, unless it's absolutely necessary during the -- the waning days of the Session, if it would be possible to have 3rd Reading votes when the Rules Committee is not meeting, I would appreciate it. Thank you.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

Your point is well-taken, Senator Cullerton. Senator Demuzio, for what purpose do you arise, sir?

SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Mr. -- Mr. President, I assume we're about to -- to vacate, so two things I'd like to -- first of all, we'd would like to have a Democratic Caucus in the Minority Leader's Office at the hour of 12:30, immediately upon adjournment. And secondly, I'd like to report that a lot of us have been wondering what happened to Al Bietsch, one of our longtime doormen, back here, who's been around here for seventeen/eighteen years. Al had a heart attack, they tell me, on -- on Monday of this week. And he's now resting comfortably. I think he's going to be home. He's to be gone for three weeks. But I just want to make it clear to the Members who are here that Al's doing okay. He's back home. He did have a slight heart attack. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR MAITLAND)

Thank you, Senator Demuzio, for that information. We wish Al well. We are, Ladies and Gentlemen, really effectively completed with our substantive work today. We will remain open for a bit while longer to -- to -- to introduce a few more bills. Introduction of Bills, Madam Secretary.
