PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

State your point.

SENATOR RUTHERFORD:

I've got -- I've got two young Pages with us. But to show you how the regional participation and cooperation goes and the bipartisan flavor to which we do this, I'm pleased to have Jason Rock, who's here, and Lindsay Rock, who is on the other side of the aisle as a guest of Senator Halvorson. They are from Peotone, Illinois. And I'd asked them are they lobbying for or against the airport and they said they're still -- their decision is still outstanding. But if the Ladies and Gentlemen would welcome the Rock children to the Senate, I'd appreciate it.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

If Lindsay and Jason would -- please be welcomed to Springfield. Senator Lauzen, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR LAUZEN:

Point of -- point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

State your point.

SENATOR LAUZEN:

Thank you, Madam President. I'd like to introduce Nick Toste, who is a ninth grader at Naperville Central, who is joining us today on the Senate Floor. And I'd also like to introduce his mom, Debbie, who's also in the President's Gallery. So, welcome aboard.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Welcome to Springfield. Will the guests in the gallery please rise? Senator Sullivan, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR D. SULLIVAN:

Thank you, Madam President. Point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

State your point.

SENATOR D. SULLIVAN:

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, just a reminder that one month from today, Senator John Sullivan, Representative Ed Sullivan and I will be hosting the 3rd Annual Sullivan Caucus party. We're going to be back at Marley's again this year. It's a great time. All Senators, staff and lobbyists are invited.

Thank you, Senator. We look forward to that. Senator DeLeo, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DeLEO:

Thank you very much, Madam President. Ladies and Gentlemen, if I could have your attention for just one second, please. I have this morning -- or, actually this afternoon, the great privilege -- the great privilege of introducing a new Member here in the General Assembly. And we have -- as you know, last week we were here for the Governor's State of the State Address. We were running a little late 'cause we said goodbye to Denny Jacobs. As some of you people that have been here for a while know the history of the Jacobs family, this will be a third generation member joining us. Ladies and Gentlemen, I'd like the General Assembly, the Senate, to welcome our newest Member, Michael Jacobs. Ladies and Gentlemen.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Welcome, Senator Jacobs. Senator Jacobs.

SENATOR JACOBS:

I'm learning as I'm going along. Thank you very much for your warm welcome. Before I begin today, I would like to ask for a moment of silence. A petite, twenty-three-year-old Rock Island girl, who was raised in Milan, gave her life over the weekend in Iraq. Sergeant Jessica Housby, who grew up in Milan, lost her life when an explosion rocked her vehicle as she was leading a convoy forward. I guess it proves in the end that freedom is not free - there's a very high cost. And as all of us begin our work, I want to keep her -- her in mind today, and so if we could get just a quick moment of silence, I'd appreciate it. Thank you. Today I stand on the broad shoulders of my great uncle, Charles F. Carpentier, who was State Senator from this district and also Secretary of State. I stand on the shoulders of my grandfather, Oral "Jake" Jacobs, who served in the House, and of course, my loving and wonderful father, State Senator Denny Jacobs. Although I come to this Body with a rich tradition in public service, I'm going to roll up my sleeves and go to work. I want to thank Senate President Emil Jones for his loyalty and leadership; as well, Minority Leader Frank Watson for his dedication to his troops. I also want to thank every Member in this Body for giving me the opportunity to serve with you and to do the right thing. And when you see me do the right thing, pat me on the back, and when I make a mistake, kick me in the tail end. Thank you very much.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Senator Hendon, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR HENDON:

Thank you, Madam President. A point of information. I just want to say to the young Senator Jacobs, we hope that's the longest speech you make on the Floor this year. You did just get here. You are a freshman, so act accordingly.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

Senator Sieben, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR SIEBEN:

A point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR HALVORSON)

State your point.

SENATOR SIEBEN:

Thank you, Madam President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. My pleasure to rise and welcome Senator Mike Jacobs to the Senate today. Our districts adjoin each other. We share several counties together. But I want to recognize Mike's mother, Mary Ellen - Mary Ellen Jacobs, Denny's wife. She's hiding back in the corner there. Let's give Mary Ellen a great round of applause. Not -- not only has Mary Ellen been a -- a loving and devoting wife to Denny for all these years, but she's also raised a wonderful son in Mike. Known -- I've watched Mike grow up. We've known each other for many, many years. And I noticed in the Moline Dispatch -- in the Dispatch this weekend, when they were interviewing Mike about -- when they interviewed Mike about coming to Springfield, and Mike's quote was -- and I don't have it -- the exact words, but he said something to the effect that he wasn't going to try to fill his grandfather's shoes, who served as a Rep. for ten years; he wasn't going to try and fill his dad's shoes here in the Senate, who's been here for eighteen years. Mike was going to lay down his own tracks with his own shoes. And, I know Mike and he will do that, and he'll lay down his own course. He'll be his own man here in Springfield. And Mike, welcome to the Senate. Look forward to working closely with you.
