him because he won the State Wrestling Championship for eighth grade. Yes, he's taller than me and he's in eighth grade. But he -- at a hundred and fifty-five pounds, he won his championship match seven to two. Also followed with a very good showing at the Top Dawgs Tournament. He's going to play football. He's also -- he's also a good student. So he's -- he's got his priorities right. And, you know, Senator Cullerton passed a resolution that we encourage the Olympics to keep wrestling there. I think this is a good example of what the sport of wrestling produces - a fine young athlete and student as well. So, welcome his parents, Debbie and Wade, in the gallery to my right, and Mason today. Thank you.
